Parents Revolt Against Plan To Split Coleman School

If the San Rafael Board of Education splits Coleman School between two sites, it will do so over the vehement protests of at least 70 parents who claim leading educators are on their side.

About 75 parents attended a meeting in San Rafael High School little theater last night, at which the school board's proposal to build a fourth-sixth grade school across High street from the high school was dissected.

All but one voted in favor of instead building six more classrooms on the present Coleman School site.

And most of the 70 promised to be on hand at next Tuesday's 7:30 p.m. board of education meeting to make their stand well known.

The board of education has under consideration two proposals: (1) a new school for fourth-sixth grades across from the high school, leaving kindergarten-third grades in the present Coleman School; (2) adding six more rooms at Coleman on a plan devised by architect Carl F. Gromme which would put the new rooms on stilts and virtually cover the now-limited play area.

Edwin Kergan Bruck of 27 Marinita avenue, an engineer, last night presented a third plan. It showed six additional rooms in a two-story extension to Coleman, with a grove of redwoods removed and Watt street (at the rear of the school) closed to enlarge the play area to 97,000 square feet—within 23,000 square feet, he said, of the amount the state recommends for a 400-pupil school.

That was the plan approved by the show of hands.

Max Thelen Jr., attorney of 199 Mountain View avenue who moderated the meeting, said a study of the problem was undertaken by a group of parents because of "some doubt as to whether conditions justified the bizarre solution" of splitting Coleman into two schools.

Mrs. Charles G. Strom of 260 Linden lane reported she had visited the state Department of Education in Sacramento and been told by a series of experts there that having kindergarten-third grades at one site and fourth-sixth grades at another was extremely undersirable. "Mr. Lucas (Supt. Frank L. Lucas) told us we would have to back our opinions with professional opinions," she said. "We have those professional opinions."

Mrs. Bruck, the engineer's wife, reported she had gone to Stanford University and talked

Two Men Beat, Rob Seaman In Marin

A young Honolulu seaman, stationed at Alameda, complained two men tried to sell him marijuana, then knocked him unconscious with a metal pipe and robbed him of $26 to $30 in Marin in broad daylight yesterday.

Peter Pennock Gould, 23, an oiler on the tugboat Orden Tadel ,staggered into San Rafael and called for help at Club Moderne at Fourth street and Lincoln avenue. His face was bloody, and he may have suffered a slight concussion, police reported.

Gould told Police Officer Richard Campèr and Sheriff's Deputy Edward McKamey he did some shopping in San Francisco, then hitch-hiked into San Rafael to visit a friend, who was not at home. He then took a taxi to Sabella's restaurant at Alto, where he had lunch, several beers, and bought some crabs to take home.

Two men in a car offered to drive him to San Rafael, he said. They showed him a cloth bag which they said contained "tea." They told him it was marijuana.

When Gould declined to buy the narcotic, they drove him to a hilly, wooded area, believed to be along Paradise drive, and dragged him out of the car. One hit him over the head with a pipe. The last thing he remembers before becoming unconscious was being hit on the face.

Regaining consciousness, he hitchhiked into San Rafael and called police at 4 p.m.

The seaman was under observation this morning at San Rafael General Hospital. His condition is not serious, hospital attendants said.

West Winds Up Presentation Of Peace Plan

Challenge Tossed To Russ; Secret Bargaining Hinted

GENEVA (UPI) — The Western powers completed presentation of their peace plan for Germany before the Big Four foreign ministers' conference today and challenged Russia to come back with "constructive" moves.

Steps were afoot that indicated the East-West talks might get down to real bargaining next week in secret.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and his Western partners wound up their side of the conference's opening stage with a flat and final rejection of the Soviet counter-plan for a peace treaty that would divide Germany permanently.

SEPARATE TREATY

As these views were presented here, it was disclosed in Moscow that Premier Nikita Khrushchev told the West German ambassador that Russia would sign a peace treaty with East Germany if the present conference fails to reach agreement. Observers saw in this a possibility Khrushchev might act without waiting for a summit parley.

Herter warned in his speech at the start of today's session that there cannot even be "a reasonable degree of peace and security in Europe" while Germany remains divided.

But Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko came right back with a new maneuver to perpetuate this division. He offered to soften the Communist treaty plan by permitting West Germany to keep its economic alliances with the West.

IMPOSSIBLE TO ACCEPT

This was bound to be rejected. A U. S. spokesman said tonight "it is impossible to use the Soviet peace treaty as a basis for discussion."

"The Western presentation of its peace plan is now complete," the spokesman said. "We have discussed and explained the major aspects of that plan.

"We hope that it is now better appreciated by the Soviet delegation . . . It is now to be hoped that the Soviet delegation will put forward next week some constructive new proposals that may serve as a basis for discussion."

TALKS IN RECESS

This was as close as any official came to confirming highly authoritative expectations that secret bargaining would

FAIR WEATHER FOLLOWS FEW LIGHT SHOWERS

A few sprinkles fell on Marin this morning, but there was just enough rain to wet the ground.

The Weather Bureau forecast fair weather here tonight and tomorrow. There also were showers in other parts of the Bay Area.

Chains were required on on Highway 50 at Echo Summit where six inches of new snow was recorded. Showers also turned to snow at Donner Summit and Carson Pass.

Scattered showers and cloudy weather through tomorrow has been forecast for Northern California with moderate thunder showers over the southern ranges and the Sierra.

Living Costs Again Reach Peak Level

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose in April, climbing back to the record high reached in July and November of last year.

The government index went up two-tenths of 1 per cent from March, to 123.9 per cent of the 1947-49 base. This matched the peak recorded in two months last year.

Announcing the figure today, the Labor Department said that rising state and local taxes helped shove up the living cost level. Costs of transportation, medical care, recreation and personal care items all were up also.

Food, however, declined one-tenth of 1 per cent, continuing a nine-months drop interrupted only in January.

The new living cost rise was accompanied by a Labor Department report showing the purchasing power of factory worker earnings also rose to a record level in April. The previous record was in December 1956.

Spendable earnings of factory workers—their pay less federal tax deductions — also set a record in April.

Factory, worker takehome pay average $80.68 per week for the worker with three dependents and $73.14 for the single worker. This reflected both increased wages and premium overtime rates for extra work hours.

Church 'Court' Backs Dr. Gill

Appointment As Seminary Head Upheld

Dr. Theodore A. Gill received unanimous approval of United Presbyterian Church's "supreme court" on theological education today, despite a challenge to his fitness to serve as president of San Francisco Theological Seminary which was brought by some elements within the church.

The challenge was entered because of an editorial Dr. Gill wrote in the April, 1958, issue of Christian Century magazine, of which he was then managing editor. In it is described as "myths" some of the beliefs concerning the virgin birth of Jesus Christ.

A question as to whether Dr. Gill's appointment to head the San Anselmo theological college would be approved was raised at the 171st General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., now under way at Indianapolis, Ind.

The question was placed before the standing committee on theological education of the assembly, which is to report on the closing day of the eight-day annual session next Wednesday.

United Press International reported from Indianapolis that some doubt arose as to the committee's findings when Dr. Gill today sidestepped the controversy, issuing a public statement saying: "I feel it would be out of order for me to comment now on a matter that is under consideration by

Double Slayer Dies In Gas Chamber

Richard G. Riser, 33, died in San Quentin Prison's gas chamber today for the 1955 holdup-murder of a man and wife in Stanislaus County.

Riser went to his death calmly on his fourth date with the gas chamber. Three previous execution dates were deferred by stays as Riser fought his conviction through the courts.

The condemned man, who lost his last hope of life Tuesday when Gov. Edmund G. Brown refused to grant executive clemency, spent a calm but sleepless last night, according to San Quentin Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff.

EATS HEARTILY

"He chatted constantly with the guards and with the warden and me when we visited him," Achuff reported. Riser ate heartily of fried chicken and "the trimmings" last night, and breakfasted on sausage, eggs and breakfast rolls.

He remained in good spirits all night, Achuff reported, and calmly walked the few steps from the death cell to the gas chamber at 10 a.m.

The lethal gas started to rise at 10:03 and Riser was pronounced dead at 10:13. At Riser's request, his body will go to the University of California Medical School.

MOTHER VISITS

His only close relative to visit him at San Quentin was his mother who lives near Oakdale, where the holdup-killing took place. The mother last visited Riser May 10, Achuff reported.

On Tuesday, Governor Brown rejected Riser's plea for clemency. "I'll never grant executive clemency in robbery cases where a gun was used," the governor said.

The clemency plea, filed by attorney Carl B. Shapiro of Fairfax, was the last attempt to save Riser from the gas chamber. No last-minute court action was filed.

Riser and his brother, Roscoe, 34, were convicted of the July 11, 1955, holdup-murder of Earl Hastings and his wife, Pauline, at Hilltop Cafe near Oakdale.

LIFE TERM

Richard Riser was sentenced to death. Roscoe got a life term and is in Folsom Prison. Witnesses said it was Richard who fired the gun that killed the cafe owners.

In numerous appeals, Richard contended the trial judge denied him due process when he refused to order pre-trial statements of witnesses introduced in court. The statements, he said, were inconsistent with the testimony of the witnesses.

Riser contended, too, the jury may have erred in deciding it was he, and not his brother, who did the actual killing.

The U.S. Supreme Court three times denied Riser a hearing. Other appeals were rejected by the California Supreme Court, the U.S. District Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Sausalito Man To Head S.F. Redevelopment

M. Justin Herman of Sausalito, long-time regional administrator of the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency and its predecessor, the National Housing Agency, yesterday was named to head the San Francisco Redevelopment Agency.

Herman will relieve J. Eugene Riordan, who will continue to handle the city's real estate operations, sometime in September.

The 49-year-old Herman, a Sausalito resident at 48 Vista Clara road since 1950, has played a key part on federal housing and redevelopment activity throughout the west and Hawaii as regional director. His office supervised the conditions under which Marin City redevelopment program was effected.

Herman on occasion has been critical of San Francisco's redevelopment program. Herman is now serving as special assistant to Norman P. Mason, federal administrator for urban and renewal and housing studies, having left the post of regional administrator a few months ago.

In appointing Herman to the $21,000 San Francisco post, agency chairman Everett Griffin described the job as "one of the toughest, and a job which requires a knowledge of real estate, financing and a mind that understands bureaucratic procedures."

Herman is president of the Sausalito Citizens Council.

Pro-Batista Plot Nipped At Miami Airport

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A fantastic plot to start a counter-revolution in Cuba was uncovered today when U. S. customs agents seized an arms-loaded plane and its 11 passengers at Miami International Airport.

The four-engine C47 transport plane was reported ready to take off for the Dominican Republic when the agents arrived. Ten men and one woman were taken off the plane.

In addition to the 11 arrested at the airport, officers said Augusto Ferrando, Dominican consul in Miami, was wanted. Ferrando was in the consul building.

Others taken into custody included Joseph Liquori, a Miami policeman who once worked for the Dominican government, and Leonard Trento, who was identified as a Newark, N. J., businessman.

Inside the plane the agents found rifles, automatic weapons and 200,000 rounds of ammunition reported destined for delivery in the Dominican Republic to friends of Fulgencio Batista, former dictator in Cuba.

Batista was overthrown by Fidel Castro last New Year's Eve after a 25-month revolution.

The girl in the plane was identified as Virginia Bland, co-pilot of the plane. Gerrando, Trento and Liquori were charged with attempted bribery of a federal officer. The others faced charges of conspiracy to export arms illegally.

Sharp Earthquake Hits Wellington

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP) — A 15-second earthquake rocked Wellington tonight, causing some damage and plunging a third of the city into darkness.

Shoppers screamed as floors trembled, walls cracked and the lights went out.

The quake centered about 50 miles from Wellington.

Man Hurt In Good Deed Sues Neighbor

A Novato man is suing his neighbor for $75,000 damages for injuries suffered when he fell from the neighbor's tree while trying to remove a swarm of bees one year ago.

Edwin M. Studley of 515 Davis avenue, Novato, filed the suit in Marin Superior Court yesterday against neighbor Omer William Culbertson, an Air Force major. Studley is represented by attorney Natalie J. Holly.

Studley says Culbertson asked him to get rid of a swarm of bees on a tree branch on May 23, 1958. Studley climbed the tree and stepped on a scaffolding which Culbertson had built on the tree. The scaffolding collapsed, toppling Studley to the ground.

The bees have since moved out of the tree.

Clothes Drier Fire Does $800 Damage

A clothes drier fire at the home of Ramond L. King in Marinwood yesterday caused about $800 damage before it was extinguished by the single-handed efforts of Marinwood Fire Chief Donald Ray.

Ray sped to 2249 Juniperberry drive at 3:18 p.m. after Mrs. King noticed smoke streaming from vents in the hallway and bathroom. The flames were believed to have started from a short-circuit in the drying machine.

Clothing within "was burned to a crisp," according to Mrs. King. The machine, valued at $250, was termed a total loss. Smoke and water damage to floors, walls and doors accounted for another $550.

King is employed in the Independent-Journal's display advertising department.

There are still 150 petitions in the field, said Clark M. Palmer Jr., committee chairman. "We hope to have them completed by May 30," he added.

Information from the assessor's office as to how many signatures will be needed and what the assessed valuation is for the area proposed as a City of Novato still has not reached the committee, Palmer said.

Needed, in order to permit the county board of supervisors to set an election, are signatures of at least 25 per cent of the area's property owners, representing ownership of at least 25 per cent of the assessed valuation.

Unemployment Still Problem In Some Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department said today that although the economy is making a vigorous recovery, there still are bad areas of unemployment requiring federal and state attention.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell urged Congress to enact an assistance program to encourage new industries to locate in hard-hit areas. He called on governors to have legislatures follow President Eisenhower's advice in improving state unemployment compensation laws.

VIGOROUS RECOVERY

"The economy in general is making a sustained and vigorous recovery," Mitchell said, "but there still are people and places which are not sharing that prosperity."

He said the localized character of unemployment, even though there was springtime improvement in more than 90 per cent of the 149 major labor market areas, "demonstrates the need for a federal areas assistance program."

Mitchell's study of the unemployment problem—with 65 million workers at jobs and 3,627,000 still idle in April—showed the greatest number of unemployed concentrated in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, California, Michigan and Illinois.

HIGHEST LEVELS

It showed unemployment particularly high among the youngest members of the work force, among unskilled laboring men, and among Negroes.

An upward trend in employer hiring plans reportedly will continue at least to midsummer.

Spring hiring dropped 14 major labor market areas from the list of those classed as having substantial labor surplus, or idleness of 6 per cent or more. Sixty cities remain on that list, compared with 86 a year ago and only 21 two years ago.

SOME SHORTCOMINGS

Marin Proves Good Convention Site

The four-day Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West helped put San Rafael on the map as a convention city, and Marin County and the City of San Rafael won praise from the delegates, but there are still some shortcomings.

This was the concensus today from persons who attended the convention and from the Marin Visitors Bureau.

Bureau manager Richard L. Shirley said, "We still need something under one roof—a place where most of the delegates can stay and where the business can be conducted."

Most of the NSGW business and activities were conducted at Bermuda Palms, and Shirley commended owner Irving Litchfield.

STAYED IN MOTELS

He added that many delegates stayed in motels along Lincoln avenue "which may become the Lombard street of Marin."

"I hope in time we will have more money for special arrangements," he said. "We had to ask each merchant to provide decorations. Later maybe we will have a store of decorations and then can put them up with each merchant's permission."

He added that it is too early to analyze the impact of the convention on business, but he hopes to get some comment on it at a San Rafael merchants meeting June 2.

"What we need, of course," he said, "is a really large motel or hotel."

SOME CRITICISM

Some criticism of the lack of street decorations and housing accommodations was voiced by delegates. One person said the nearest place he could find to stay was Sausalito. In spite of this, however, several delegates from San Francisco stayed in Marin, just to avoid the daily commuting.

For the most part, delegates had nothing but praise to heap on San Rafael and Marin County, its officials and its businessmen. Women who attended the convention with their husbands stuffed their purses with recipes from Marin County restaurants.

MAYOR PLEASED

"It was a great help to the area,' said Mayor John F. McInnis of San Rafael.

"San Rafael was very pleased to have the 82nd convention of the Native Sons," he said, "and we sincerely hope each individual found enough to his liking to come back as an individual or as a family group to enjoy what Marin has to offer."

D. Frank Monte, convention chairman, said it was "most gratifying to have persons come up to me yesterday—persons who had attended conventions for 40 or 50 years—and have them say that this one was the best, the most outstanding."

Novato Queen Will Have Double Title

A queen will reign over Novato's Western Weekend next month with a double title—"Queen of Western Weekend" and "Maid of Marin," Ronald De Beaumont, chairman of the queen selection committee of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, said today.

The girl selected must be from 16 to 26 years of age, never married, and must have lived in California for a full year before Aug. 30.

The queen will be chosen June 13, a week before the opening of the community-wide celebration, said De Beaumont. Application forms, available for De Beaumont must be returned by June 1.

The queen will not only preside officially over the Western Weekend, but later will represent Marin County at the Maid of California contest at the State Fair in Sacramento. Among her prizes will be an expense-paid trip to that city for a week-long stay.

Judging will be done on the basis of beauty, 80 per cent; poise, 10 per cent, and personality, 10 per cent.

Her Highness will hold an honored place in the annual parade up Grant avenue June 20, at the rodeo at the Novato Horsemen Assn. club grounds north of Novato, June 21, and other Western Weekend functions.

Some compound of every metallic element known—even uranium—is used in ceramic glass.

More Detailed Plans For Sewage Demanded

Developers of Riviera Marin golf course and subdivision project on the vast McNear's ranch in east San Rafael must bring in more exact plans for sewage disposal, the San Rafael Sanitation Commission decided yesterday.

Latipac, Inc. wants to put in a golf course this year east of Glenwood subdivision and follow it up with several thousand homes and a resort-community near China Camp.

Daniel P. Coleman, engineer for Latipac, Inc., and company attorney Peter Hunt of San Francisco presented a plan for sewer installations yesterday afternoon. But sanitation commissioners declared the agreement was not specific enough.

They asked Latipac to confer with the city's sanitation officials and Deputy County Counsel Robert Smallman to work out details of the sewer plan.

Norris Rawles, administrator for the sanitation district, and engineer Dominic Selmi pointed out they want assurances that Latipac would (1) complete a treatment plant in the area or (2) make necessary improvements to tie in with the existing lines and the treatment plant.

They recommended the existing sewer line from McNear's ranch to the treatment plant be lowered at the hill near Villa Real to make it easier to pump the flow over the hill. A pump and a pressure line must also be installed in the subdivision area.

This would be only a temporary measure to get the Riviera Maria development started, Rawles said. Eventually, after a certain number of homes are built, Latipac must put in a new treatment plant to serve the McNear ranch area.

Dr. Hildebrand Speaks Tomorrow

A dinner featuring an address by Dr. Joel Hildebrand, professor emeritus of chemistry at University of California, at Bermuda Palms tomorrow at 8 p.m. will be open to the public, James W. Kirchanski of the sponsored 3-R School said today.

The dinner is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Dr. Hildebrand is noted for his searching criticisms of the California public education system. He is a member of the citizen advisory committee of the state legislature's joint interium committee on the public education system.

Beach Fire Burns Grass, Bulkhead

A fisherman's open fire possibly set off a blaze at McNear's Beach yesterday which ignited a bulkhead and spread uphill, burning an acre of grass and threatening the Roy H. Powers residence before it was curbed by Marin County Fire Department.

Fire Chief Charles R. Reilley said damage was limited to about $200 to the bulkhead and 50 feet of fence.

Six eucalyptus trees literally exploded as they caught fire. Shrubbery at the Powers residence was burned, with flames coming within 10 feet of the cement-block type house. The house was on the lee side of the wind.

Three fire trucks and six firemen under Chief Reilley were dispatched from the county fire department at Woodacre at 4:31 p.m.

College Budget Session

Trustees of Marin Junior College District will hold a 1959-60 budget "work session" Monday at 8 p.m. in Room 1 of Harlan Hall at the College of Marin, Kentfield.

Twin Cities Students To Present Concert

More than 200 pupils of Larkspur-Corte Madera and Neil Cummins Schools will participate in Larkspur School District's annual free public concert Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

The varied musical program will feature instrumentalists of fourth through eighth grades and singers of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

Instrumental groups will be conducted by Miss Marjorie Whittlesey, district music director, and the Neil Cummins Glee Club by Krieg Vezie, special class teacher at Neil Cummins School. Ann Rowland will announce the program. Kit Warne, Gordon Hagewood and Robert Eichstaedt will be the sound engineers.

The combined schools orchestra will open the program. The Neil Cummins Glee Club, accompanied by Jeannine Sarraille and Jane Huffman, will sing four selections.

"The Miller of the Dee" and "Plantation Favorites" will be performed by a woodwind quartet composed of Linda Campbell, flute; Julia Shew and Steve Finston, clarinets, and Jeffrey Cross, alto saxophone.

"Integer Vitae" and "Now Thank We All," arranged for brass quartet, will be played by Wayne Taylor, corner; Kenneth Larsen, baritone horn, and Russell Dean Wilkins and Earl Dennis, French horns.

Margreet Winkler, violin soloist, will perform "Czardas," by Monte.

A costumed old world "German" band — a Bayrische musik-kapelle called "Die Gucklichen Sieben" — will present several "serious" new world selections. Led by kapellmeister Ross Hudson, the colorful aggregation is composed of Tom Graefe and Diane Conley, clarinets; Joanne Olson, alto saxophone; Robert Colburn, trumpet; Richard Simon, cornet; David Allen, baritone horn, and Hudson on the bass clarinet.

Accompanied by Mrs. Beatrice Johnson, the Larkspur-Corte Madera Chorus will sing four selections. The program will end with numbers by the 65-piece combined schools band.

Bill To Pay City For Services To U.C. Turned Down

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Should the state pay a city for police and fire protection given state institutions inside the city?

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee said no yesterday.

It rejected a bill by Assemblyman Don Mulford (D-Berkeley) calling for payments by the University of California to the City of Berkeley for police, fire and ambulance services.

Mulford argued that the city had to buy special fire equipment to protect U.C. buildings. The total cost to the city taxpayers for services to U.C. is about $50,000, a year he said.

"The main problem is the tremendous expansion of the university at the expense of the city of Berkeley," Mulford said.

Robert L. Harkness, budget chief for the state Finance Department, argued that the bill would 'set a dangerous precedent that would open the door to payments for all state institutions.

Directors' Dinner

Tiburon Fire Chief Jack Ishmael clarified an announcement made yesterday that a dinner meeting at the Tiburon Fire House tonight is for the board of directors of the Marin County Firemen's Assn., and not for the association as a whole. Chairman will be Chief Ralph McLaren of Kentfield.

STARKWEATHER ART—This drawing of a cowboy stopped along the trail as he lights a cigarette is representative of the pictures drawn by 20-year-old Charles Starkweather as he whiled away his time in the Nebraska penitentiary awaiting execution for murder. (AP Wirephoto)

Starkweather's Dad Wins 11th-Hour Stay Of Execution For Slayer Son

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—A dramatic middle-of-the-night appeal by his sleepless father early today won a two weeks stay of execution for mass slayer Charles Starkweather.

The delay was announced just 90 minutes before Starkweather was to have died in the Nebraska State Prison electric chair for one of 11 murders he committed 16 months ago during the Midwest's bloodiest slaying spree.

Starkweather, told by the prison chaplain that he had at least two more weeks to live, reacted by saying "I'm more nervous now than I was all night."

U.S. District Judge Richard E. Robinson of Omaha granted the stay at the request of Guy Starkweather, the 20-year-old condemned murderer's father.

The judge said it appeared Starkweather "is and has been without the services of an attorney" so there was a possibility he was being held in violation of his constitutional rights.

Starkweather and his family had dismissed their court-appointed lawyers after the youth was convicted and sentenced to die. The family contended the lawyers did not represent their son properly in trying to win his freedom on the grounds he was insane at the time of the slayings.

Robinson's stay, effective until June 4, was granted to allow Starkweather time for an appeal to the federal circuit court of appeals against the denial, earlier this week, of an application for a writ of habeas corpus.

The chaplain, Rev. Robert Klein, said that when Starkweather got word of the stay "he broke out in a big smile and shook my hand."

The chaplain added that "one of the first things he said after he got the word was 'this is sure going to make my mother happy.'"

Guy Starkweather, admitting he was "very tired because I have been up all night," told United Press International that he called Robinson after talking with other jurists and being told to consult with the senior federal district judge.

The stay was issued at 4:22 a.m. Telephone calls were made immediately to Nebraska Gov. Ralph Brooks and Acting Warden John Greenholtz. The prison received its call at 4:30 a.m. Brooks' administrative assistant, Robert Conrad, announced the delay to newsmen at 5 a.m. The execution had been scheduled for 6 a.m.

Starkweather had appeared resigned to his fate when he met with his family last night.

He told them he faced death with a "clear conscience" and at peace with God.

Man Sues To Halt PG&E Project

A Homestead Valley attorney went to court yesterday to prevent Pacific Gas and Electric Co. from digging up his property to install power poles and string electricity wires.

L. S. Zipperian of 11 Midway avenue, who practices law in San Francisco, and his wife, Judith M., are suing in Marin Superior Court. They ask the court to restrain PG&E from going ahead with the installation of power poles.

According to Zipperian, the power company started the project over his land about April 1. He alleges that his bushes were uprooted, power poles dumped on his land, and holes bored for putting in poles and stringing wires, all to the detriment of his property.

Families Too Separated, Parents Say

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Many parents belonging to the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. feel that the demands of church and community tend to separate family members too much.

This was brought out in a preliminary report on a survey conducted by the Board of Christian Education of the church, issued yesterday at the 171st General Assembly of United Presbyterians.

PARENTS QUIZZED

To accomplish this, 845 parents of children under 18, in 63 congregations in cities of various sizes and rural areas, were interviewed. Questionnaires were filled out by another 1,000 parents and a like number of ministers, and the analysis of the data included consultations with theologians, psychologists and sociologists.

The report stressed that further research remains to be done, but some of its preliminary conclusions included:

Families in rural, urban and suburban areas alike complained that community and church activities scatter family members too much.

RUSH, CONFUSION

Mentioned were baseball leagues for youngsters, church choirs, school clubs, P-TAs, Scouts, 4-H clubs and other "youth-serving agencies . . . which contribute to the rush and confusion that aroused our parents."

"Their resentment grows because in the face of these many demands on family time and energy," the report stated, "they find that tensions mount, communication deteriorates, and family freedom is crowded aside in a seemingly relentless schedule."

It added that "awkward scheduling . . . makes Sunday for some families the busiest and tensest day of all the week," and concluded that "the church itself needs to re-examine what it expects of families."

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Dulles Unchanged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—There was no reported change today in the condition of John Foster Dulles, who is gravely ill in Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

State Department press officer Lincoln White tolds newsmen yesterday that he had nothing to add to his announcement Tuesday when he said Dulles was growing weaker and receiving heavy doses of pain-killing drugs.

The 71-year-old former secretary of state has been losing ground in his fight against cancer since his condition was complicated by pneumonia a week ago Saturday.

Actor Faces Surgery

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Tony Curtis undergoes surgery today for a heel he injured playing tennis with Kirk Douglas. His doctor said Curtis split his Achilles tendon and will be in a leg cast for six week.

Castors To Lose, Too

What A Feat

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Gene Nau, 21, bragged to his fraternity brothers he could roll an empty 55-gallon oil drum 17 miles in less than half a day. Yesterday he did it, pushing the drum over back roads from Lone Star Lake to Lawrence in 5 hours and 20 minutes.

Ike, Dag Confer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower conferred at breakfast today with Dag Hammarskjold, secretary general of the United Nations.

Hammarskjold declined to tell newsmen what he and Eisenhower discussed.

"Private talks are private talks, whether at breakfast or at dinner," the U.N. official said with a smile.

Toy Mutilates Boy

CHICO (UPI)—A Chico teenager shattered his left hand yesterday when a toy cannon he was showing two schoolmates discharged prematurely.

Clair Geear Jr., 15 and his friends, Monte Miller, 17, and Gary Imhoff, 17, had emptied powder from rifle and shotgun cartridges into the barrel of a 4½ inch model cannon Geear made in his school metal shop.

Tamped with tissue and loaded with shot, the tiny replica fired as Geear was priming it with matchheads. The blast severed three of his fingers and imbedded shot in Miller's right side.

Mom, 3 Kids Poisoned

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A 42-year-old mother was arrested early today after she allegedly poured liquid ant poison in chocolate milk and fed it to her three children and herself because she "felt depressed."

Mrs. Ruth Porter and her three children, Donald, 13; Janet 8, and Douglas, 6, were found ill in their Lennox area home by sheriff's deputies responding to a "sick persons" call.

The children were taken to Centinella hospital and Mrs. Porter lodged in the prison ward of general hospital. All were reported in fair condition. She was booked on suspicion of attempted murder.

Herter Gets An Assist

GENEVA (AP)—Two top members of the U. S. delegation to the foreign ministers conference showed up today at a staff meeting in bow ties.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, who wears bows habitually, raised his eyebrows at Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy and Livingston T. Merchant, assistant secretary of state for European affairs.

The pair said they adopted Herter's favorite haberdashery to give him moral support.

Forty-two billion cans were opened in the United States in 1956. That is 259 for every man, woman and child in the country.

Famed Physicist Dies

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Louis N. Ridenour Jr., 47, vice president of Lockheed Aircraft Corp., died yesterday.

He had won international fame for his work in nuclear physics and electronics, and had served as the first chief scientist of the Air Force. Ridenour headed a special committee that surveyed the Air Forces research and development organization. The "Ridenour report" which the group wrote led to creation of the Air Research and Development Command.

He joined the Lockheed firm in 1955 as research director. At the time of his death, he was general manager of the company's electronics and avionics division.

Suicide By Plastic Bag

NEW YORK (AP)—A transparent plastic bag—the type that has been a playtime death trap for at least a score of children in the nation in the past few months—was used by a 60-year-old accountant to commit suicide. The body of Theodore Evant, with a plastic bag over his head and tied around his neck, was found in his bed.

Ike Nominates Cabot

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower has nominated John M. Cabot, a career diplomat, to be ambassador to Brazil, the job Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce turned down after she was confirmed in a heated Senate wrangle.

Cabot, 58, has been in the foreign service since 1926. He currently is ambassador to Colombia. He formerly was ambassador to Sweden and in 1953 served as assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs.

Plastic Bag Kills Baby

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (UPI)—A seven-months-old boy suffocated yesterday when a plastic shirt bag became wrapped around his head.

The victim, Radny Smith Flynn, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Flynn.

Baptists Dramatize Report

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A bell tolled somberly, and a voice sounded through the darkened hall:

". . . crime . . . gambling . . . alcoholism . . ."

". . . materialism . . . atheistic and Communist philosophies . . . obscene literature . . . indifference to spiritual values . . . disintegration of American home life . . ."

In such terms, Southern Baptists traced the perils of the world last night. But their big convention also saw a bright side.

'YEAR OF REVIVAL'

"This is truly a year of revival," the voice flooded over the massed thousands, and chimes rang. "We thank God for the victories . . . We thank God for the working of his spirit . . ."

It was a broad-gauged presentation, in stark and dramatic mood, as the denomination's Home Mission Board staged its version of the trials and hopes of America, 1959.

"Southern Baptists . . . This Is Your Life," the graphic report was titled.

FAR RANGING

It ranged from Cuba to Alaska, and to churches and mission stations across the continent as it portrayed the efforts of Christians and the challenges they face. Missionaries, hospital workers, teachers and others took turns telling of their work.

About 15,000 Baptists, most of them "messengers" from home churches in 45 states, witnessed the presentation staged at the huge Fairgrounds Coliseum.

They heard a report that Southern Baptists, who now number nine million in 31,000 churches, expect to more than double the number by 1975.

Dr. Courts Redford of Atlanta, Ga., executive secretary of the board, prayed: "Let our hearts never be at rest until we have completely claimed our land for Christ."

Study Of Water Usage As Linked To Pollution Eyed

The Marin County Board of Supervisors may be asked to order a study into long-range plans of Marin County water usage as it concerns pollution.

This is one of the possibilities for correction of pollution that emerged in the third in a series of conservation meetings by the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

Club president Gail D. Adams of Larkspur said it was brought out that since a Bay Area water pollution board was formed in 1950, the percentage of sewage entering San Francisco Bay which has been treated has risen from 25 per cent to 95 per cent.

He said a sports fisherman who has been fishing the waters for 50 years for striped bass said he has seen the good and bad cycle, and feels the striped bass are coming back because of sewage control.

It was felt, too, Dr. Adams said, that organic wastes that reached the bay from streams that run through Marin ranches have been reduced.

Dr. Adams said the possibility of Marin's 14 sanitary districts merging into one large one was discussed.

He said it was thought there might be value in suggesting to the board of supervisors that the county planning commission consider the long-range proposed usage of waters and the treatment of sewage over the county as a whole.

Speakers at the meeting were John B. Harrison of the Bay Area Regional Water Pollution Control Board; Herb Pinther of the state Department of Fish and Game; Robert A. Sterling, secretary of the Tiburon Sanitary District Board, and William Desmond, director of Marin County sanitation. John B. Ehlen, Sausalito city attorney, also scheduled, was unable to appear.

Belgian King Ends Visit To Bay Area

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—King Baudouin of Belgium was scheduled to end his visit to the San Francisco Bay Area today with a tour of Stanford University.

The 28-year-old bachelor monarch will visit the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace on the campus, and will be guest of honor at a reception given by Stanford president J. E. Wallace Sterling.

After the reception, the king will view the collections of the Committee for Relief in Belgium in the archives of Hoover Memorial Library.

In the afternoon, Baudouin's party will fly from San Francisco International Airport to Castle Air Force Base at Merced. The party will then motor to Yosemite National Park for the night.

The king retired early last night after a busy day of sightseeing and an evening dinner in his honor. Earlier in the day, he admired the view of San Francisco presented from Vista Point on the Marin side of the Golden Gate Bridge.

In a short address at the dinner given by the World Affairs Council of Northern California, the king told some 400 guests that Belgium stands with the United States in the determined defense of peace and freedom.

There will also be prizes.

Recreation Aide Honored In Fairfax

James Gallagher, who has helped many a Fairfax boy in trouble or child temporarily without a home, was honored last week at a testimonial dinner given by the Fairfax Youth Activities Council. One hundred persons attended.

Gallagher is giving up his part-time job as recreation director at Fairfax Pavilion on June 1. He is a San Rafael real estate agent who for five years served as volunteer recreation director in Fairfax. The past two years he has received a salary from the city for the evening recreation program.

One of the last events is a variety show at 8 o'clock tomorrow at Fairfax Pavilion put on by a group of 30 children between the ages of 6 and 13. They have been rehearsing for three months on Wednesday evenings, climaxed by a barbecue at Gallagher's San Anselmo home last night.

The showboat theme of the variety show is carried out in its name: "Minstrels in May." Tickets may be obtained at the door. Proceeds will go to improving the pavilion.

4 Airmen Must Stand Trial For Kidnaping

A night of horror during which four airmen allegedly kidnaped a San Rafael moulder and forced him to submit to indignities at knifepoint was related today in Marin Municipal Court.

On the strength of the victim's testimony, Judge Albert F. Scheidecker ordered the four airmen to face trial in superior court for kidnaping, felonious assault, committing lewd acts and conspiracy to commit lewd acts. Prosecutor Roger P. Garety said the airmen will appear in superior court Monday morning.

The suspects, identified by the victim, are Thomas S. Michaels, 24; Richard P. Weitzel, 24; Norman C. McCracken, 28, and Wayne R. Carr, 22. They are members of Detachment 1 of the 2347th Material Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base. They are being held in the county jail under $5,000 bail each.

David Buenrostro, 29, of 43 Harbor street, who works for a San Rafael manufacturing company, testified he met the airmen at Club Rio on the night of May 7. They offered to give him a ride back to San Rafael but instead drove to a lonely spot and forced him to submit to their demands. Buenrostro named Michaels as the one who held a knife to his throat.

The man said he pleaded with them to let him go, but they hit him and threatened to kill him. He finally feigned unconsciousness, and they dumped him out of the car and drove off. Buenrostro ran screaming to a nearby home and called for help.

Sheriff's deputies said Buenrostro was almost incoherent when found near the Smith Brothers dump road.

Children's Book Stirs Dixie Racists' Wrath

COMBINED AP & UPI

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — A children's book about the marriage of a white rabbit and a black rabbit has been removed from the open shelves of Alabama public libraries because of segregationist criticism.

The book is "The Rabbits' Wedding," published by Harper Brothers yast year for children between the ages of 3 and 7. It was written and illustrated in color by Garth Williams.

The story tells of the marriage of the black and white rabbits at a moonlight wedding attended by all the other animals of the forest.

After criticisms of the book appeared, Miss Emily Wheelock Reed, director of the Alabama Public Library Service Division, which lends books to local libraries throughout the state, ordered the book placed on the agency's reserve shelves.

Miss Reed said the rabbit book had not been banned. "That would not be morally right," she said. "We have put in on the reserve shelf where the public can get it by request only."

Other books on Alabama library reserve shelves include both pro-integration and pro-segregation books and those which might be considered offensive for reasons of morality or obscenity—"Lolita" is one of those.

"The Rabbits' Wedding" joined them after it was attacked in the Montgomery Home News, a publication of the local chapter of the White Citizens Councils.

The article was carried under the headline: "What your children read—what's good enough for rabbits, should do for mere humans." It made no overt criticism of the book but simply reproduced its text, and said it was "now making the rounds of polite parlor small talk in Montgomery."

Miss Reed said she had been surprised by the interpretation placed on the colors of the rabbits, and "personally, I like the book." Her directive to librarians said that "in view of the troubled times in which we live we decided to withdraw the book from circulation."

She said she and members of her staff had received complaints about the book and that a member of the Legislature, Sen. E. O. Eddins, questioned it.

The publishers issued a statement from the author saying the book had "no political significance."

Williamhs, now in California, added in the statement:

"I was completely unaware that animals with white fur, such as white polar bears and white dogs and white rabbits, were considered blood relations of white beings. I was only aware that a white horse next to a black horse looks very picturesque."

Williams said his story was not written for adults. He said they "will not understand it, because it is only about a soft furry love and has no hidden message of hate."

with Prof. William R. Odell, famed school survey expert who made a survey for the San Rafael Schools in 1949. Odell, she said, told her the 400 pupils projected for Coleman School in years to come "could squeeze in" to 93,000-square foot play area, and a K-6 school at one location is definitely preferable to a split school.

Mrs. Thelen, the moderator's wife, said Dr. Cecil Parker, head of the curriculum division of the department of school studies at University of California, told her a school should never be split at the fourth grade and that grammar schools should not be placed adjacent to high schools. She said Parker told her parents' opinions in such matters are more important than those of the school staff and that "division of a six-grade school was such a drastic measure" that he would conduct a survey to discover a possible alternative if he were requested to do so.

Kenneth L. C. Dorking of 20 Glen Park avenue, a Pacific Gas and Electric Co. employee, assailed the site across from the high school as unsound educationally and economically. He said it was located on the fringe of the area it proposed to serve, and "if zoned for industry and apartments could be worth $865,000"—too much for an elementary school site.

Mrs. Strom said parents and teachers at Laurel Dell Primary and Intermediate Schools—where the split-at-fourth grade scheme already is being tried—"are unhappy with the plan."

Superintendent Lucas, who was present in the audience, dismissed the advice from Sacramento lightly.

"The only reason they're in Sacramento and I'm down here is that the job here pays more," he said.

He said he refused to believe that Professor Odell told Mrs. Bruck what she said he told her.

the appropriate committee of the general assembly."

But at noon today, word was received at the seminary in San Anselmo that the committee has voted unanimously to endorse Dr. Gill's appointment, disclosed Dr. Jesse Hays Baird, president-emeritus of the seminary and still a member of its faculty.

"News has arrived in San Anselmo that the committee on theological education has heard Dr. Gill and those who are concerned about his beliefs, has given consideration to the whole matter and voted unanimously to endorse Dr. Gill for appointment, finding he is orthodox in his doctrine and worthy of the trust being placed in him," said Dr. Baird.

The committee is made up of 30 to 40 members, half elders and half ministers, widely representative of the entire Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., Dr. Baird said. While Dr. Gill's appointment is still subject to confirmation by the assembly as a whole, it is inconceivable that the assembly would override the unanimous recommendation of its "supreme court" committee, Dr. Baird added.

"Some, but very few, within the church have been alarmed by Dr. Gill's coming here to head the seminary," said Dr. Baird.

One of those bringing the challenge, he said, was the minister of a Presbyterian church in Glendale which is among the largest in California.

The controversy received impetus, it was reported, from an article in the current issue of Christianity Today, published in Seattle, Wash., attacking Dr. Gill's theology.

Dr. Baird, pointing out that "I have a greater interest in this than anyone else, as I have given my life to the seminary," he declared:

"I believe in Dr. Gill as worthy of this task. If we stand by him and give him a chance, I feel he will lead this seminary in a very fine way . . . I'm backing him with all my might."

Dr. Baird added that Dr. Gill's "profound scholarship" is probably responsible for some persons believing "they detect the trace of heresy" in some of his statements.

Dr. Gill has been acting president of the seminary since last October. He was selected for the post by the school's board of trustees after Dr. J. Edward Dirks of Yale University Divinity School, who had been chosen following Dr. Baird's resignation, changed his mind about accepting the presidency.

Senate Votes To Limit Farm Support Loans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate approved today a $35,000 ceiling on price support loans to any one farm or farmer.

The 57-20 vote came amid predictions that the action would wreck the complicated federal farm program.

The loan limitation was an amendment by Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.) to a bill for a new wheat program.

Last Wednesday the House put a provision for a $50,000 ceiling on farm price support contracts into the annual agriculture department appropriation bill.

For several years, Williams has been reminding the Senate of the size of some price support loans.

As the Senate began consideration of the wheat bill, there was an expression of opposition from Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and a tart retort from a Republican senator.

Sen. Milton R. Young (R-N. D.) said of Benson's views: "The most absurd, ignoramus thing I have ever seen."

Benson's opposition was set out in a letter. He said the bill probably would further increase wheat production and costs of the government program.

HOUSE DEMOS WIN HOUSING VICTORY

Lopside Vote Passes $2.1 Billion Bill; Result Puts Congress, Ike At Odds

WASHINGTON (AP)—A walkaway victory by House Democrats in their battle for large-scale federal housing aids enhanced prospects today for other Democratic programs.

By a lusty 261-160 vote yesterday, the House passed a Democratic-backed $2,100,000,000 housing bill after upsetting every Republican effort to whittle it down to administration size.

The result put Congress squarely at odds with President Eisenhower in the politically tinged dispute over spending vs. the balanced budget.

A more immediate result was to generate new steam behind proposals for a billion dollars of federal aid for local public works projects, and a quarter billion dollars of government loans and grants to assist depressed areas.

House passage of the housing bill now sends it to conference with the Senate to compromise differences. The Senate earlier this session voted a $2,690,000,000 program.

Republicans were counting on a presidential veto if the bill sticks to present lines. None of yesterday's major votes gave the Democrats the two-thirds majority they would need to override a veto.

Presidential displeasure appears certain to be centered on authority for continuing government-subsidized low-rent public housing.

President Eisenhower in his January message to Congress asked for an end to public housing. But the Senate voted to subsidize 45,000 new units, the House 140,000 new units over four years.

The House ignored cries of "galloping socialism," budget-busting and spending sprees in approving the bill without major change.

The jury will next consider Scott's plea of innocent by reason of insanity.

Father, Four Children Die In Home Fire

ONTARIO, (San Bernardino County) (AP)—A father and his four young children died last night in a fire which destroyed their home.

Robert Burk, 29, a dairy worker, and his youngest son Bobby, 2, died in the flame-swept home.

Firemen pulled Tony, 7, Barbara, 6, and Terry, 4, from the burning building and attempted to resuscitate them, but failed.

Burk was baby-sitting with the children while his wife Joan, 26, was working as a waitress in a coffee shop. She is two months pregnant.

Cockles Cost $22

3 Accused In Cancer Cure Racket

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A San Francisco woman was scheduled to appear in court today to plead on charges that she and two Southern California men peddled "cancer cure" machines for $500.

The woman, Mrs. Golda Franzen, 46, was arrested yesterday by agents from the Food and Drug Bureau of the state Department of Public Health.

Her two associates, arrested at the same time, were identified as Webster Billington, about 40, Santa Ana, and Emerson Hartman, 69, a San Bernardino chiropractor.

Agents said the arrests broke up a "racket that duped at least 425 persons in California and other states out of some $200,000."

The "cancer cure" machines resembled inexpensive luggage on the outside and tape recorders on the inside. They were supposed to cure sickness with vibrations set off by records of words and music.

Agents said the vibrations from "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" were the medication for cancer, and a recitation from the Old Testament was listed as an aid for constipation.

HAFB Squadron Chief Transferred

Bennett's successor has not yet been named.

Bennett will be chief of the interceptor missiles branch, weapons division, with the directorate of plans and requirements.

Don't Forget Italian Cooking; New Managers For Rancho Pool

With French cuisine becoming a byword in the county, don't forget the good Italian cooking that once made Marin famous.

Like at Deer Park Villa, for instance.

Here's a tip—

If you've got a party of eight or 10 and will let Joe or Antoinette know ahead of time, you can get them to prepare some of those special side dishes—risotto Milanaise, polenta, gnocchi and others.

Any day but Sunday. Sunday is too busy—too many customers.

Another tip—

Don't spend all your time at the bar and expect to get served about 10 o'clock at night.

You wouldn't do it at home.

Besides, the Ghiringhellis take pride in their cooking. It's the main purpose of Deer Park Villa.

Not the bar—even if it is comfortable.

SWIMMING POOL at Rancho Nicasio is now in the hands of Kitty Schmelzer and Scotty Mallen who, between them, manage to keep it open Tuesdays through Sundays, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Individual and family swim club memberships are available—also private lessons. It is not necessary to secure a membership to swim—you can pay as you go.

Kitty has worked with the Red Cross, taught swimming in Bordeaux and Munich and at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Native Sons attending Wednesday's barbecue at the Rancho feasted on buried barbecued prime rib. The beef was wrapped and buried in a large pit with live coals for 10 hours.

EVERYONE WHO'S eaten Earl's duck Aloha at El Paseo has been asking his wife Mary how he prepares it. I sneaked in some smooth talking and here's the recipe (I think).

You take a duck—

Cut it in sections.

Brown quickly in the oven—baste with a little butter.

Remove from oven, pour 1½ tablespoon brandy over it and burn. (Light quickly or it will evaporate).

Drain all but about 1 tablespoon of the grease into a separate container.

Add ¼ cup potato flour to the duck fat and mix.

In another pan, dice ½ fresh pineapple, add brown sugar and butter, and glaze.

Add this to your duck fat, also ½ cup Marsala wine, 1 bouillion cube (or 1 tablespoon meat glace), ½ cup chicken bouillion.

Pour over the duck, return duck to oven, cover with wax paper and cook 30 minutes at 300 degrees.

Yeah—I know. It's a lot of work.

Why don't you go down to El Paseo and order from the menu?

It's easier.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT was gourmet time again at Ondine. On this occasion it was 30 members of the Marin County Wine and Food Society. I haven't seen the menu yet but it's supposed to have been little short of royal.

The Marin County Wine and Food Society antedates the North Bay Wine and Food Society and claims to have the only charter strictly for Marin County issued by the parent organization in London.

Membership is select, co-sexual, and harder to break into than Ft. Knox.

CIOPPINO: Gil Freitas, formerly of Hamie's, is now mixing at The Cellars where new stereophonic sound comes up like thunder out of the china clear across the bar . . . Pete's Pier 15 now has a bigger look-see into the kitchen so you can tell what's cooking. Soon it will be steaks and chicken, says Pete—at night, that is . . . The mailman is delivering to Tiburon Tommie Cox from far off places. One was an article from last Sunday's Chicago Sun-Times naming Pier 41 as among California's 10 best eateries. Another was from a Philadelphia gal who must have read it and dashed off a reservation for a party of 15 on Labor Day—longest advance notice I've heard of . . .

BOB CAMPBELL of Bob's of Marin, after returning from the National Restaurant Convention in Chicago, reports restaurant prices and beverages higher east of the Rockies, also in Los Angeles — mostly in the swankier places . . . Pat and Ron Deutsch doing a story on touring Northern California for Red Book magazine thought to eat at Sabella's in Marin. When Ron got sick and couldn't leave El Cortez Hotel in San Francisco, resourceful Angelo sent an escort for Pat and returned her with a complete dinner for her ailing spouse. It is reported that he recovered on the abalone a la Giovanni . . . Rickey's Rancho had a booking for 397 Native Sons (?) at last Tuesday's lunch. They showed up to a man — all women.

Three New Films To Debut This Weekend In Marin

Bob Hope Stars In Spoof On Western Drama

By LESLIE DARD

Three new films will be on view this weekend in Marin County, one a comedy, the second a grade A Western, the third an import. Here are the details on these, the second runs and the revivals:

RAFAEL THEATER

"Alias Jesse James" offers Bob Hope in one of the funniest vehicles he's had since he and Bing Crosby were making their famous "Road" series with Dotty Lamour. And that's going back quite a way.

This comedy (in color) opens Sunday in San Rafael.

In it, Hope plays an insurance salesman who unwittingly sells a policy to Jesse James and then is ordered to go West — either to invalidate the policy or to preserve the life of the notorious outlaw.

Typical Hope gags: Stripped down to his red underwear, he wins the undying devotion of Jesse's girl (Rhonda Fleming) when he beats a Gila monster to death with a rattlesnake; a posse composed of Bing Crosby, Gary Cooper, Ward Bond, Roy Rogers, Tonto and almost all the lawmen now appearing on TV; a piano-playing little boy named Harry Truman.

There's also a Rube Goldbergian contraption by which Bob shoots down a gunman while raising his hands. In short, typical Hope: anything for a gag.

Estimate: Most audiences will love this one.

The Rafael co-feature will be "Miss Lonelyhearts," in which Montgomery Clift plays a young reporter who's assigned to write an advice to the lovelorn column. The cast includes Robert Ryan as his editor, Myrna Loy as Ryan's wife, Dolores Grey as Clift's girl and Maureen Stapleton as one of Miss Lonelyhearts' correspondents.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"These Thousand Hills," (CinemaScope, color), taken from a novel by A. B. Guthrie, Jr. (he wrote "The Big Sky"), tells the story of a cowhand who got rich, using the money of a dance hall girl. It opens on Sunday in San Anselmo.

Don Murray stars as a young cowpoke from Oregon with a yen for a big spread in Montana.

His pal is played by Stuart Whitman, an easy-going type who eventually settles down with Jean Willes, one of the two dance hall girls they meet. But Murray can't forgive the fact that his girl, played by Lee Remick, also has a past, although she gives the impression that she's really a decent, small town kid.

Murray goes through a tough Montana winter hunting wolves for bounty money and when it's over, he's still too poor to suit himself. Enter Miss Remick again, to lend him the cash he needs to buy his first ranch. Our hero fattens enough cattle for a small fortune, enough to make him a big man in Montana and win the banker's niece (Patricia Owens).

HOPE GOES WESTERN — Bob Hope and Rhonda Fleming whip up a storm of laughs in the technicolor production of "Alias Jesse James" when they lampoon the legendary west in Hope's first Western since "Paleface." The three-day engagement opens Sunday at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael.

The richer he gets, the less he remembers about his own poor past — until the film's heavy (Richard Egan) dares raise a hand to Miss Remick, who has risen in status from dance hall girl to mistress.

Murray knows, in spite of his wife's pleas, that he never can feel like a man again if he fails to avenge the girl who befriended him when he needed help in starting his rise to Babbitt of the range.

The showdown between Murray and Egan is in the classic tradition.

LARK THEATER

"Forbidden Fruit" is one of the rare serious ventures by the French pantomimist Fernandel and, as one of his admirers, I'm glad to report that he loses none of his skill in this tale by Simenon (originally titled "Act of Passion").

He plays a wealthy doctor whose first wife was chosen by his mother and whose second wife chose him. Now middle aged, he is still an emotional adolescent when he meets a vagabond wanton (Francoise Arnoul) in Marseille and persuades her to return home with him. He is able to lavish gifts on her, but each of their meetings results only after elaborate stealth.

Fernandel is touching and expressive as he goes through the agonies of a man suffering the pangs of youthful love. And Miss Arnoul is obviously sufficient to drive an older man wild.

Claude Nollier is the shrewish wife whose concern for money and status drives her mate into Miss Arnoul's arms, while Sylvie plays the fussing, domineering mother.

Estimate: A very adult, rewarding film.

FAIRFAX

"Raintree County" is a large-scale treatment (color and the Camera 65 process) of Ross Lockridge Jr.'s 1948 jumbo best seller. It emerges as a Civil War period piece covering six turbulent years in the life of an Indiana youth (Montgomery Clift) who makes the error of marrying an emotionally troubled Southern belle (Elizabeth Taylor) rather than his hometown sweetheart (Eva Marie Saint).

The story is compounded of generous portions of legend, historical and social tradition, romantic drama (youth in love), hearts-and-flowers sentiment and some melodrama.

It weaves a huge tapestry of mid-19th-Century life; human nobility, war, slavery, sacrifice.

NOVATO THEATER

"Thunder in the Sun," starring Susan Hayward and Jeff Chandler, is a western, but departs from the usual patterns. Example: Susan plays a Basque, one of a group trekking to California to found the wine industry. Instead of being attacked by the redskins, these immigrants attack the Indians.

It's in color and opens Sunday.

Chandler plays the party's stolid, but vigorously amorous guide. When he forces his attentions on the wife of the group's leader (Miss Hayward), he finds himself taking a licking. His second attempt ends in her husband being accidentally killed by a sentry.

Enter Jacques Bergerac, as Miss H.'s brother-in-law. He's slated to be her next husband. There's quite an unconventional battle between Jacques and Jeff before the matter's settled.

This is no Oscar film, but it has plenty of action and several novel twists.

SEQUOIA THEATER

"Compulsion" (CinemaScope) is a brilliant, suspenseful story based on "the crime of the century" — the murder in 1924 of young Bobby Franks by Leopold and Loeb. It opens Sunday in Mill Valley.

Even though the names of the principals have been changed, it is still the story of two boys, both brilliant, who committed a murder simply as an experiment in human experience.

Artie Straus (Bradford Dillman) and Judd Steiner (Dean Stockwell) are the youths betrayed by a lost pair of eyeglasses.

The climax is built around Clarence Darrow's eloquent plea for mercy. Orson Welles, as the greatest of defense attorneys, offers a crashing indictment of eye-for-an-eye justice, using the very words spoken by Darrow.

Incidentally, this film has just been awarded all sorts of prizes at the annual Cannes festival, particularly for the acting of the principals. The supporting cast includes Diane Varsi, in the role of a sympathetic young girl.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

A pair of top-drawer films of recent vintage have been brought back to the Playhouse: "Fastest Gun Alive" and "Man on Fire."

The first named is an offbeat western which, while offering action, also depends on character development to tell its story.

Glenn Ford stars as a western storekeeper forced to stand up to a challenge from a crazed gunman (Broderick Crawford) sworn to kill anyone presumed to be faster with a gun than himself.

Ford's fellow townsmen know he is fast on the draw, but they do not know he is deathly afraid of a man-to-man duel.

The cast includes Leif Erickson and Jeanne Crain.

The co-feature stars Bing Crosby in an emotional tale of divorce and its aftermath, specifically a battle for custody of his son. The participants are Mary Fickett as his ex-wife, wanting to share the child; Richard Eastham as her stuffy, second husband; Inger Stevens as a lawyer who finds herself falling in love with Crosby.

Humorous and frequently heart-touching, this adds up to fairly adult stuff.

MARIN MOTOR MOVIES

Clifton Webb plays a turn-of-the-century bigamist in "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker," currently at the MMM.

In spite of his waspish effrontery, Mr. Webb's views are not meant to be taken seriously, for this is a comedy (based on a stage success.)

As Pennypacker, he has settled into a happy marriage with a large and noisy family. In fact, he likes family life so much he sets up house in Philadelphia, where business takes him regularly.

Alas, he is found out and the situation must be righted.

Assisting in this whimsey are Dorothy McGuire as his understanding — up to a point — wife, and Charles Coburn, as the rollicking grandfather to Webb's 15 offspring.

HE WON A CHAMPAGNE DINNER

As chief dispatcher for the Tiburon Fire Department, H. O. Douglas lists fire watching as his major occupation. But recently he tried his hand at word unscrambling. In a contest sponsored by Sabella's restaurant near Alto, Douglas deciphered the word bouillabaise from the scrambled version "asolabisibule" and went on to win the contest by deriving 490 words of three or more letters from the letters used in the word. Douglas, shown enjoying his prize champagne dinner with Mrs. Douglas, had this to say: "Easy as alphabet soup."

PT&T Value Pegged At $936 Million

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Board of Equalization yesterday set the assessed valuation of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. at $936,949,000, raising it a record $129,985,565 over last year.

The board attributed the increase—largest one-year boost ever on a utility in California—to general growth of the company and rate increases.

The assessment for Southern Pacific was set at $176,621,000, down $1,593,000 from last year, due in part to movement of much S.P. rolling stock from the state.

Three days ago the board assessed Pacific Gas and Electric at $1,045,918,000, an increase of $51,648,000.

The board overrode protests by the utilities that its assessments are too high.

The five-man board arrived at the evaluations after holding precedent-setting hearings on the assessments itself. Formerly, the staff recommendations were accepted without question.

Opera Group Does Well With 'Martha'

By BETSY M. WOODMAN

A sprightly performance of "Martha" by the Mill Valley Light Opera Company last night was enthusiastically received by an all-too-small first night audience in San Rafael High School.

The cast of the comic opera, to its great credit, performed as though to a SRO house, which, it is hoped, will be the case during subsequent productions tonight, tomorrow, and May 29 and 30.

Although the burden of the show of course fell on the four principals, the support of the whole cast made for a well-knit performance. Jean Kahler's Martha was dainty and appealing, on time with her cues and accurate in tonality. Her high tones were especially light and sweet. Nancy, or Julia as she becomes, was sung by attractive Johanna Billings, whose voice was especially rich and full when blended in duet with Martha or in quartet with the men. Her good diction was most welcome.

Plunkett and Lionel, sung by Cary Smith and Kenneth Wohn respectively, were exceptionally well presented on all counts, becoming increasingly better as the show progressed.

Dramatic rapport among the principals, and indeed amongst the whole cast, was excellent. There was an ease and grace in spite of the severe limitations of the small stage. The expert direction of Paul Best was responsible for this "art which conceals art."

William Peavey did well as the rather foppish Sir Tristram. The sheriff, played by John Harding, supplied a droll note.

The old familiar solos from "Martha" were presented with a pleasing freshness which saved them from over-sentimentality. Compliments go to the singers and their musical director for the tempo employed.

The delicate "Last Rose of Summer," and Lionel's romanza "Like a Dream Bright and Fair," were pleasingly sung. The "Spinning Wheel Quartet" was captivating, and the third act duet between Plunkett and Julia was saucy and well-handled.

The rousing drinking scene drew applause both for appearance and vitality. All the choral appearances displayed a fine animation both in singing and manner due to David Reed's preparation. This is a contribution the professional theater seldom achieves, giving bright brittleness rather than warmth.

Cathy Radke, as one of the three servant maids, was delightfully pert.

The simple settings of Thomas Cox and Mary Engelhart were a fine background for the women's soft-colored costumes. When such simplicity is employed however, perfection in detail is most important.

Makeup by Jody White and Irene Pritzker was uniformly good, giving an appearance of ruddy health to the country folk. Male costuming provided good accents to the pastel gowns of the women. Keeping Martha in white throughout was a happy thought. Her costume in the hunting scene was especially effective.

Two problems need overcoming to aid forthcoming productions. The orchestra, beautifully responsive to Thompson Chesnut's direction, was usually too loud during the singing. Although primarily woodwind and string, the ensemble was most often intrusive rather than accompanying. This may have been partly responsible for loss of the singers' words.

The other problem relates to the scene change in the second act. Sounds from backstage were most audible when the music stopped. This, coupled with seeing the musicians (more visible because not in a pit) wipe instruments and change reeds caused a break in the continuity of mood which had been so well established.

UNSUCCESSFUL TEMPTRESS — Lady Nancy, played by Johanna Billings, tries vainly to tempt Plunkett, portrayed by Cary Smith, in von Flotow's opera "Martha" which opened last night at San Rafael High School auditorium. Presented by the Mill Valley Light Opera Company, "Martha" will also be seen tonight and tomorrow and Friday and Saturday of next week. (Ken Molino photo)

Marin College Play Draws Packed House

The classic Greek drama, "King Oedipus," drew a standing-room-only audience for its opening night last night in College of Marin's Harlan Hall.

This is the first time in history that a College of Marin dramatic production has played to a capacity house on its opening night, declared Frederick Thon, drama director.

The play will be presented again tonight and tomorrow night. Curtain time will be at 8:30 o'clock, but Thon warned: "The people had better get there by the time doors open at 8 o'clock if they want to get seated."

Star is Victor Stewart, second year student at the college, who plays King Oedipus. Director is Frederick Thon. The play is based on a translation by William Butler Yeats.

Action Needed To Correct County School Board Vote

It is obvious that we are not lawyers. Further, that we don't pretend to understand things legal.

Perhaps this is why we were so completely confused by the recent ruling of the county counsel's office on the County Board of Education election.

As we understood the procedure, five persons were elected to the board to represent the five trustees areas in which they lived; two other members were elected as representatives of the county as a whole.

Under the counsel's interpretation, as we falteringly understand it, none of the candidates were elected to represent a trustee area, all were elected at large, but at least one must live in each of the five areas.

Thus the incumbents in Area 1 and Area 5 seeking re-election had to defeat only one other candidate to win, while the Area 3 incumbent had to defeat every other candidate in the race to get her job back.

The reason was that one of the two at-large members of the board coincidentally lives in Area 3. Thus she changed, when she sought re-election, from an area representative to an at-large one.

This certainly is not equitable. Three persons elected at the same time to the same jobs should face the same political situation when they come up for re-election.

The fact that the voters gave the incumbents the highest vote tallies and thus made the counsel's opinion academic, is not important. The facts and the opinion still remain with us. They will come up again at the next county schools board election — and the next— and the next —

A law which permits an elected representative to be representing one area at one moment and another area a few moments later should not be permitted to continue. We can think of several ways in which carefully thought out resignations and appointments could undermine candidates pinpointed for extinction.

Political service should be made as free as possible from such juggling. Two things could be done: (1) Arrange a test case in court to see if the counsel's opinion is legally correct; or (2) Pass some legislation clarifying the situation.

The last seems most practical, if our solons hurry.

Only Rich Foreign Students Wanted?

Nothing pleases us more than to learn that Marin County youngsters are going to have an opportunity to live with a family abroad or that foreign students are coming to Marin to study. This is one of the finest ways to promote international understanding.

However, it is much easier for our youngsters to live and study abroad than it is for foreign students to come to this country. The U. S. Immigration Service sees to that.

One of our staff has spent some time in Hong Kong. There he became acquainted with two Chinese youths who were anxious to study in the U. S. Both were leaders in the high school which they attended. Our employee offered them room and board, if they wanted to study at College of Marin.

They jumped at the chance. But the U. S. Immigration said they would have to make a deposit of $1,000 apiece. Their mother is a secretary and probably doesn't make that much money a year. Just providing the round trip fares would be a problem.

The two boys have gone on to the University of Hong Kong. They are too sensible to embrace communism, but they probably don't think too highly of a country where the rich are welcomed and the poor are rebuffed.

Is this the picture we Americans wish to present to the world?

Writer Tells His Secret Wishes (Like Under-Tipping Bum Waiter)

By SAUL PETT
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Some day I'd like to have the courage to:

Tell a plumber, or a painter or a carpenter: "I'll get someone else."

Under-tip a lousy waiter and tell him why.

Tell the boss, "If you'll see my secretary, I'm sure she can arrange an appointment for you."

Tell a cab driver, "When I want any of your philosophy I'll ask for it."

Ask my wife, "What happens to all our money?"

Walk up to the big loud mouth at the bar and belt him with no prior introduction.

Out-race a state trooper, trying to give me a ticket, to the state line.

Ask Queen Elizabeth II, during an audience at Buckingham Palace: "What's a beautiful dame like you doing in a joint like this?"

Electrify my fence against my neighbor's predatory children.

Tell the old lady who always managed to stand near me when I get a seat on a crowded bus: "Madam, the doctors give me three days. How many have you got?"

Stand on my head in a modern art gallery and shout: "It does, too, look better this way."

Ask the doctor: "Be frank, Doc. Haven't you paid for your college education and equipment 100 times over?"

Ask President Eisenhower: "Are you sure you counted all your strokes, including those two in the rough?"

Say to Tallulah Bankhead at a cocktail party: "Tallulah? Tallulah who?"

Say to a rea estate agent: "Yes, but how much will it cost to repair all that picturesque charm?"

Tell the Internal Revenue Service: "I'm tired of this partnership. Why don't you buy me out?"

STRIP THE GEARS of the elevator operator, who, at 5 p.m., sings out, "Half a day today?"

Investigate personally the thing called "brand X" and see if it's as bad as all those TV announcers claim.

Ask Gen. Douglas MacArthur, "Did you remember to send a birthday card to Harry Truman?"

Point-blank, ask the captain of the Queen Mary, "Now quick, which is the port side?"

SNORE OUT LOUD at the philharmonic.

Pull up a chair at the summit conference and say, "All right, men, how about a little seven-card stud, one-eyed jacks wild?"

Rush up to Elizabeth Taylor at a crowded airport, kiss her fondly and then back off, saying, "Sorry, I thought you were my mother-in-law."

10 YEARS AGO

San Anselmo City Councilmen set June 15 as the date for what Mayor Arthur W. Smith described as "the most important election in the history of the town" — a vote on the recall of Councilmen Richard E. Love and Cecil J. Allen.

Two campaigns were shaping up in Fairfax over whether councilman and former Mayor May Hax should be recalled. A group called Fairfax Council for Unity issued a letter defending Mrs. Hax on her record.

Rock-And-Roll Next In Church?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Articles have appeared in papers about the presentation of the "20th Century Folk Mass," a jazz composition, in an Episcopal church in Berkeley. This is the second time, the papers said, this has been done in an Episcopal church. A Norwalk, Conn., church also used it for the regular communion service last month.

I also saw that the choirmaster of an Episcopal church in San Francisco is hoping to present the same piece in his church in September.

Now, I have nothing against the Episcopal Church. I attended an Episcopal high school some years ago. The music we always had at the school was beautiful. However, I just want to say, with all the force I know how, that having this "jazz composition," or any other jazz in any form, in a worship service, is, to my mind, the most OUTRAGEOUS AND AWFUL BLASPHEMY against Almighty God. It must have been only because of His infinite longsuffering and mercy that the persons responsible were not struck down on the spot.

Being "modern" and "up-to-date" in a worship service is not the same as making a mockery, travesty and open shame of a service in a house of God. Humble reverence for the Lord who made us is essential in any time, any age.

I wonder if "rock-and-roll" is to be the next kind of music to be heard in a church service.

Why The Attack On The SP?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It was with interest that I read the new attacks on the management of the Southern Pacific Co. for the firm's lack of promotion of rail passenger service (I-J May 20). The attacks were made before the Interstate Commerce Commission by a member of the public and members of the staff of the state Public Utilties Commission.

For readers interested in more than these political or economic rationalizations I might point out that the comparison between advertising expenditures of Southern Pacific and such blue chip roads as Santa Fe or Union Pacific completely fail to take into account the top-heavy long-term debt of the SP; a debt to which passenger service could only add.

Though SP is strong competitively, its debt amounted to more than $753 million in 1957. The quoted $2 million advertising expenditure of the Santa Fe was more than the entire net income of SP in the years 1934, 1937 and 1938.

Deficits incurred by the quaint but expensive passenger trains must be paid through increased freight rates by the shippers and general public. Every time this happens the public's PUC "watchdog" has in reality taken another nip out of its master's pants.

Herter May Find His Job Lonely And Colorless Before He's Through

WASHINGTON (AP) — Christian A. Herter's job as secretary of state is a position of high honor but it may become for him, before he's through, a lonely and colorless post.

There are several reasons for thinking so, now that the terminal illness of his predecessor, John Foster Dulles, fastens attention upon the task Herter has inherited.

1: He has very little time to develop new ideas. His job ends 20 months from now — when the Eisenhower administration goes out of office— unless the Republicans win in 1960 and want to retain him.

2. NO ONE IS really expecting from him any change in American foreign policy as it was laid down and pursued by Dulles, with President Eisenhower's blessing. It is now long-established and more or less accepted by American public opinion.

3. The shadow of Dulles will lie across every move Herter makes. It will be a yardstick for comparison between the two men. It cannot help but make Herter self conscious about his own performance, since Dulles was such a dominant figure.

4. He gives no sign of having any of Dulles' flamboyance — for instance, Dulles' startling phrase-making which agitated both friends and foes — and apparently has very little of Dulles' ego or forcefulness.

AS AN EXAMPLE:

At the foreign ministers meeting in Geneva, Herter's performance has been correct, but because he is a quiet kind of man he has by no means dominated the conference as Dulles would have done, inside and out.

His statements at Geneva already have been criticized as too prosaic and legalistic and lacking in public appeal and understanding.

The Dulles-Eisenhower foreign policy has several basic elements:

Yield nothing to Soviet protestations of goodwill unless accompanied by performance; preserve America's system of military alliances to keep the Soviets and Chinese Communists standing still; discount agreements with Moscow unless there is enforcement, that is, a check system to prevent cheating.

THIS POLICY has become so much of American thinking that Herter, even if he wanted to, could not deviate from it without subjecting himself to critical examination by Congress and the public.

The one change he probably will make is in running the State Department. Dulles conducted pretty much a one-man operation, doing most of his own thinking and handling most of the important diplomacy.

Herter is expected to rely more on the men around him.

ALL ATTEMPTS to predict Herter's performance are off if the Soviets should create a major new crisis between now and the time he and the Eisenhower administration go out of office in January 1961.

Then he would probably need all the forcefulness and inventiveness he could muster.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A 70-year-old banker defiantly faced his board of directors and announced he was going to marry an 18-year-old telephone operator.

"But J. B.," protested the vice president, "isn't she just a wee bit on the young side for you?"

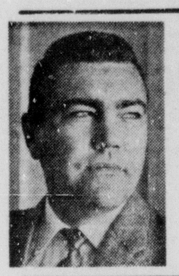

"Ridiculous!" snorted the banker. "Women of my own age are bossy, extravagant and always dragging me off somewhere."

"Young girls are the same," persisted the vice president.

"Sure they are," agreed the banker. "But who cares?"

Then there was the 4-year-old who toddled into his dad's study, ruffled his dad's hair, and observed suddenly, "Hey, Daddy, your head is coming through."

It Was A Grand Week For Grand Lodge Of Native Sons

The Native Sons of the Golden West wound up its four-day 82nd convention yesterday in San Rafael after a colorful week of activities that ranged from a parade down Fourth Street to dedication of the Old Nicasio School.

It was the first time the convention had been held in San Rafael since 1889 (14 years after the Native Sons was organized).

That convention has been described by oldtimers as a spirited one. We think this one was spirited too.

THE NATIVE SONS, and the Native Daughters who were helping, brought to San Rafael a festive air, and heightened local interest in the history of California.

The convention drew delegates from the far corners of the state. Those who came from the most northernly area were Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Sacchi of Arcata.

"It's just like home," Sacchi kept saying as he viewed Marin's redwoods. Sacchi, an automobile dealer and bank executive, planned to fly his own plane to the convention, but called off the flight because of the wind. "I'm glad we didn't fly," Mrs. Sacchi said, "because driving around has given us a chance to see the countryside."

George Metaxas of Richmond, co-chairman of publicity, said, "This shouldn't just be called Marvelous Marin, it should be called friendly and neighborly Marin."

There were two brothers at the convention — Superior Court Judge Wayne Millington of Redwood City, and Seth Millington, an attorney, from Gridley.

BY AND LARGE the convention, under the general chairmanship of D. Frank Monte of San Anselmo, ran smoothly. But there was one little catch during the public speaking contest Monday.

Nikki Nicholson of Lodi, one of three contestants, was well into her speech but something went wrong with the public address system. Nikki had to give the speech all over again. But she came in second anyway and won a $500 savings bond.

Law enforcement officers under the direction of Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and San Rafael Police Chief Charles Chiesa, drew praise from delegates. Both law officers helped smooth out the wrinkles in managing the parade last Sunday, and the motor tour Thursday.

THE TOLLING OF the school bell at the dedication of the Old Nicasio School was done by Rocky Shone, son of the grand president.

But before he could do it, his father and Monte had some difficulty in getting the bell to function. But they finally did, after many a climb to the roof.

At Rancho Nicasio, the comment far and wide was that the deep-pit cooked beef "was the best I ever ate anywhere." The honor for it belong to Joe Irwin, a cook for Nick Kobseff's eating emporium.

The meat was cooked for 8½ hours, with Irwin and his crew up all night preparing the coals. The makings of the sauce were kept secret.

Nicasio Parlor No. 183 under the direction of Leo Lavio and Neil McIsaacs ran the barbecue dinner.

It was a grand week for the Grand Parlor.

Foreign Aid Proposal Would Face Plans To Terminate Military Aid

There is building up in this country a resistance to the foreign aid appropriations which must be taken seriously by the friends of foreign aid.

This is not only because it is unpopular to provide money for foreigners at a time when at home it is necessary to retrench on all sorts of desirable projects. The great new fact is that the supporters of foreign aid are so disenchanted with the existing program that they cannot advocate it wholeheartedly.

SEN. MANSFIELD, like Sen. Fulbright before him, has read the signs of the times. He sees that if foreign aid is to remain part of our foreign policy, the program will have to be reformed.

The question is how to bring about the reform, given the fact that the mutual aid programs are involved in a vast military and civilian bureaucracy, and that this bureaucracy has acquired a vested interest which causes it to oppose serious reforms.

Experience shows that Congress has thus far been unable to overcome the inertia of the bureaucracy, and in its frustration it is becoming increasingly exasperated with the whole business.

IT IS TO THIS state of affairs that Sen. Mansfield addressed himself last week. He came forward with what seemed to me an essentially moderate but, nevertheless, a searching and effective proposal. Its object is to compel a thorough-going re-examination in the administration of that part of the foreign aid program which causes the greates doubt and discontent.

This is the part providing grants and gifts as distinguished from loans. It amounts to about 75 per cent of the total appropriation. Here are subsidies to enable weak countries to maintain larger military establishments than their economic life, and their capacity to raise revenue, would justify.

Sen. Mansfield's proposal is that an amendment should be attached to the current foreign aid bill which "will require, in the case of nations receiving grants of defense support or economic assistance, that the Executive Branch work out in detail with the recipient nation, and submit in connection with next year's aid bill, a detailed plan for the progressive reduction of these grants" so as to terminate them within three years.

THE AMENDMENT does not say that direct military aid is to be terminated in three years. What it says is that by next year there must be plans for each country for reducing the economic aid which enables it to maintain an over-sized military establishment.

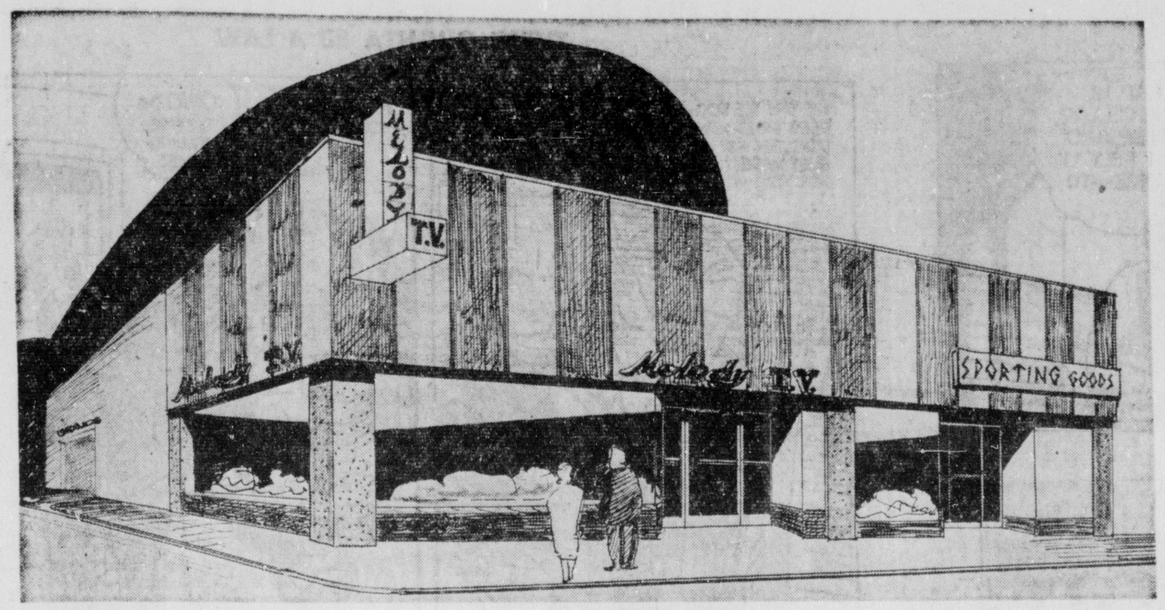

The plan would show how the armaments can be reduced to a size which the country can digest. We can still supply arms beyond those which the country can pay for. We can still supply arms, but only in the amount which the country can take without inflation and disorder.

The cutting edge of the Mansfield amendment is that it would compel the administration to reappraise, to re-examine, and to justify from the beginning and all over again, each military aid program.

THE AMENDMENT does not say that all military aid must terminate in three years. It says that the administration must provide a plan for terminating it.

It is implied, and should probably be made clear in the amendment, that if no plan to terminate it in three years can be worked out without sacrificing the national interest, then the burden of proving that this is the case will be on the administration.

The Mansfield proposal, I should add, does not touch the Point Four Program or the Development Loan Fund. These, we may confidently believe, are destined to play an even bigger part in the future than they have in the past.

NEW FRONT FOR SAN RAFAEL STORE — This is what the building housing Melody Radio and TV and San Rafael Sporting Goods Co. will look like when a remodeling project announced today is completed, according to the conception of architect Alfred Adler. The project is to be undertaken by Lionel M. Harwin and Kurt L. Rosenthal, new owners of Melody. The building is the only pre-fire structure on the south side of Fourth street between D and E streets.

Building That Survived Big Fire To Get Face-Lfting

The one pre-fire building remaining on the south side of the burned-out block of San Rafael's Fourth street will get a face-lifting next month.

The brick building at Fourth and E streets housing Melody Radio and TV and San Rafael Sporting Goods Co. survived with little damage when fire swept the block on July 29, 1957.

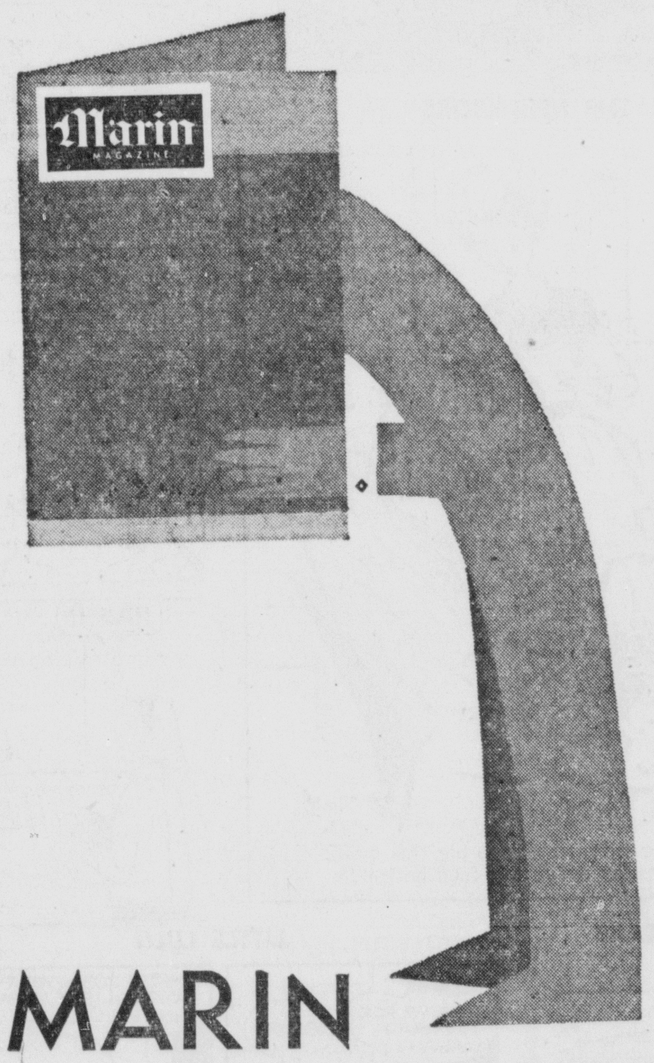

It is to be extensively refurbished in connection with a change of ownership of Melody Radio and TV which was announced today.

Lionel M. Harwin of Greenbrae, who has been manager of the store for five years, and Kurt L. Rosenthal of San Rafael are purchasing the business from Philip Rosenberg of San Rafael, who is retiring effective June 1.

As soon as the new owners take over, remodeling will begin which will give the building a new face and add a stereophonic room to the radio-TV phonograph store. Alfred Adler, San Francisco architect who is Harwin's father-in-law, has designed the remodeling. Contractor on the job will be John A. Couden of San Francisco.

Harwin said he expects the improvement project to be completed within a month. It will mean that every building on that side of Fourth street between D and E streets will present a new facade, as all except the Melody TV-San Rafael Sporting Goods corner are new buildings erected since the fire.

The temperature at which glazes melt to a smooth coating on pottery or other ceramic ware ranges from 1,600 to 3,000 degree Fahrenheit.

Giants Hot, Cold Outfit; Especially Cold Against Dodgers And Braves

CONNOLLY

It takes quite a bit of restraint to keep from busting out and really telling the S.F. Giants, one and all, to go places.

Not that the ball club, as a whole, is to blame. But if it isn't one member of the Giants, it's another, and when it isn't the pitching, the fielding, the hitting, it's the management. I tell you they are an exasperating club to figure out.

So far they've had great pitching at times, but not for any length of time.

They've had batting rampages, on and off. But more off than on.

The pitchers and the hitters are not co-ordinating their talents. And separately they're ineffective.

Against the Dodgers and Braves, our Giants looked like pigmies. Besides kicking a couple of ball games away, they lacked aggressive, heads-up, smart ball playing.

In the Braves series, I'd blame it on an inferiority complex that started hatching last year and seems to be continuing this season.

No club can afford to make mistakes against a club like Milwaukee.

The Braves cash in on every boot its opponents make. The Giants, as a team, seem to be developing a strange case of jitters. They get butterflies in their tummies and bats in their belfry. And strange as it may seem, the entire club seems to fall to pieces all of a sudden.

If you've noticed the Giants' opponents when they are clumsy, it is only one player. But when the Giants are clumsy, the whole outfit looks like funny valentines with baseball uniforms wrapped around them.

It's really not sporty to say the Giants, who have been hugging the one-two-three spot since the kickoff, aren't an exciting and interesting club to watch. But they are also a disappointing team to glimpse.

Maybe it isn't fair, but I can't for the life of me see how a ball club with an entire infield hitting under .300 and only one or two regulars hitting over .300 can be rated as a powerhouse club.

Take Mays, Alou and Wagner as your .300 hitters and that about tells the story. The rest of the boys are stumbling, fumbling and jumbling and by no means living up to advance notices.

If you will examine the Milwaukee lineup you get a pretty fair idea of a powerhouse club with good pitching.

The Giants have good pitching, but the so-called powerhouse, too often, seems to be short-circuited.

And another very important factor with the Giants' play to date is the unfortunate circumstance of not having a "take charge guy" on the ball club.

Del Crandall is the Braves' take charge guy; Johnny Temple for the Cincy Reds; Bill Mazeroski for the Pirates; Al Dark for the Cubs. The other teams like the Giants are minus the inspiring playing pals to give 'em the urge at critical moments.

3d Big League Okayed; Seen In Five Years

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Baseball's major leagues have opened the gate for the formation of a third loop with major league status.

Operating heads ofthe 16 National and American League clubs agreed unanimously yesterday "to favorably consider" applications for major league status by "an acceptable group of eight clubs which could qualify."

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick says his personal belief is that such a league is inevitable and that it certainly will come within five years.

An even more optimistic report came from William Shea of New York's Majors Committee on Baseball. He said: "We ought to be ready in four or five weeks to do something. The third major league should be in the formative stage by that time."

Frick's statement, at the wind-up of a hastily called meeting, said, "There is no existing plan to expand the present major leagues." By that he meant expansion of the National and American loops to 10 or 12 club organizations.

"The approach is to a third league," he said.

The statement from the club owners loosed a flood of speculation.

One was — How about ball players?

NEED 200 PLAYERS

A third major league would need 200 players under the present player limit rule.

To that, Frick said, "The players will develop if you have the jobs for them."

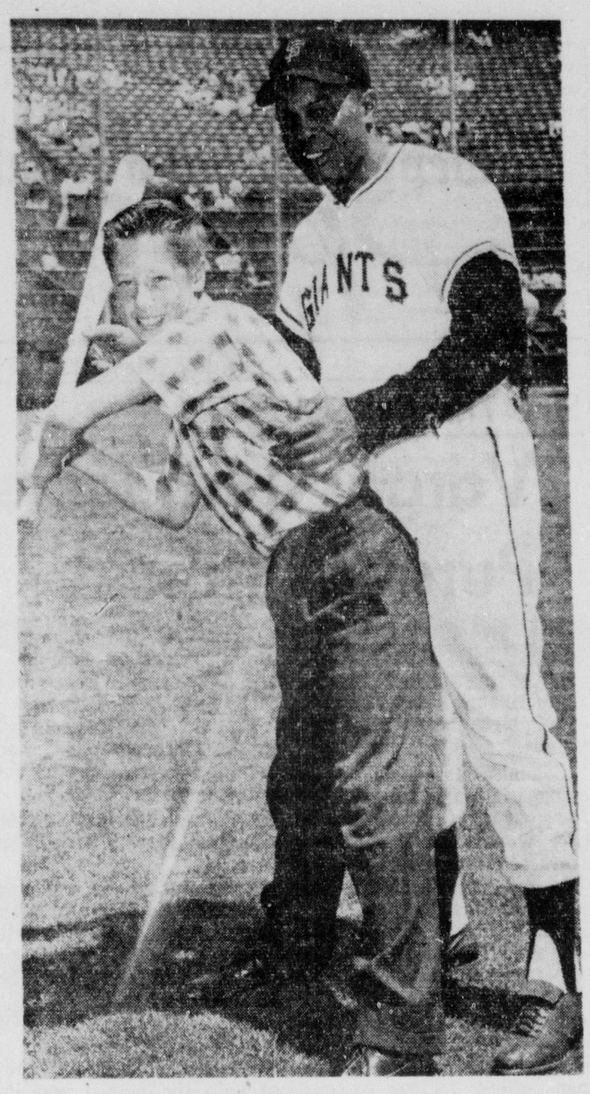

Among the cities which have been suggested as possible members of a new major league are New York, Buffalo, New Orleans, Dallas-Fort Worth, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Montreal, Seattle, Mexico City and Toronto.

The club owners set up 10 qualifications members of a new league would have to meet in order to "go major."

In addition to the territorial qualification, they would have to show proof of financial responsibility, have a park or a commitment for a park seating a minimum of 25,000, have a balanced 154-game schedule, adhere to the major league salary agreement with no maximum, accept the various major league agreements, agree to join the player pension plan or adopt a comparable plan, have a population in each city not less than the smallest city in the present major leagues.

REALTORS WIN, 6-1

The Realtors downed the Lions 6-1 last night in the Mill Valley National Little League.

THRILL OF A LIFETIME

Getting a batting lesson from the Giants' great Willie Mays is the dream come true of 13-year-old Bart Post of Hanna Boys' Center in Sonoma. A busload of boys, including many from Marin County, recently visited Seals Stadium and were treated to visit with the players. Young Post was the first to grab Mays for his private lesson.

Antonelli, Drysdale Duel In L.A. Opener

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers and the San Francisco Giants, two old rivals from way back, go at it again tonight at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

A crowd of 50,000 fans was expected to turn out to watch the old foes battle in the opener of a three-game series. Attendance of less than 10,000 will be enough to push this season's Los Angeles mark above half a million.

In 20 home games, 490,286 fans have passed through the turnstiles.

Lanky Don Drysdale (3-4) will take the mound for the home team, which was idle yesterday. He's working a three-game losing streak, but was optimistic for tonight in view of his three straight wins over the Giants.

LEFTY SWINGERS

Manager Bill Rigney of San Francisco is expected to use outfielders Leon Wagner and Willie Kirkland and catcher Hobie Landrith, all lefthanded swingers, in a effort to get to Drysdale. This will mean benching Jackie Brandt, Felipe Alou and Bob Schmidt, all righthanded swingers.

San Francisco will play three games against the Dodgers before returning home for two more games with the Dodgers, three with St. Louis and two with Chicago. The Giants will play every day for the next 40 days.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli (5-2) was tapped for hurling chores tonight by Rigney. Antonelli dropped the Dodgers in their last meeting in the Bay City and enjoys a 7-6 lifetime record over the home team.

The Dodgers were humbled 16 out of 22 times by the Giants last year, but they'll be fighting tonight to keep their 5-2 edge gained this season.

Manager Walt Alston will send nine right-handed batters against Lefty Antonelli, thus having to shelve Norm Larker and Ron Fairly who have been hitting well. Duke Snider also was out of tonight's lineup.

But Don Demeter and Joe Pignatano, both on hitting binges, will be in there against such Giant batters as Willie Mays and Felipe Alou.

The Dodgers yesterday backed into a tie for third with the losing Cubs, a half game behind the second-place Giants and four games behind the league-leading Milwaukee Braves.

Bosox Buy Avila, Sell Bill Renna

BOSTON (AP) — Bobby Avila, 1954 American League batting champion now sporting a meek .170 average, today is the property of the Boston Red Sox. General Manager Bucky Harris purchased Avila, 32, from Baltimore yesterday for an undisclosed amount to strengthen the infield reserves and the pinch-hitting corps.

At the same time the Sox sold outfielder Bill Renna of San Jose, Calif., outright to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League.

U.S. Netters Ousted In French Tourney

PARIS (AP) — The last of American men players in French tennis championships were eliminated yesterday when Jack Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., lost to Australia's Martin Mulligan and Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Paris was tumbled by Sweden's Jan Lundquist. Janet Hopps of Seattle won her second round match in women's singles but Karol Fageros of Miami, Fla., was beaten.

HEAVIES MEET IN TV FIGHT

NEW YORK (AP) — Boxing returns to Madison Square Garden for a long run tonight with a heavyweight match between Alex Miteff of Argentina and Wayne Bethea of New York. The first Garden ring show since March 20 will be covered on network (NBC) radio and television starting at 7 p.m. PDT.

Odd Fellows, Merchant Tied For League Lead

Odd Fellows and Gallinas Merchants, each with two victories and no losses, share first place in the Gallinas Valley Little League standings after the first week of play.

The Little Beavers and Redwood Sports Shop each have a 1-1 record while the Lions and Fleming's Red Sox are each winless in their first two games.

Track Coach Quits

WHEATON, Ill. (AP)—Gil Dodds, champion miler of a decade ago, resigned as track coach at Wheaton College yesterday.

Pancho Closes In On Hoad As U.S. Tour Nears End

PALO ALTO (UPI)—Pancho Gonzales powered his way from behind in the third set last night to defeat Lew Hoad, 4-6, 6-3, 9-7, and pull to within three matches of the Australian in their personal cross-country duel.

The loss cost Hoad a chance to wrap up the tour victory. He now leads the pro champion from Los Angeles( 14-11, although Gonzales lead in earnings, with $26,150 to Hoad's $25,150.

The tour resumes tomorrow night in Newport Beach, with Gonzales meeting Ashley Cooper and Hoad taking on Mal Anderson. Cooper easily defeated Anderson, 6-1, 6-2, last night.

The 60-city tour will wind up with a two-match in La Jolla May 30-31.

HANLEY'S REPORT

Braves In Good Spot To Up Lead

By JACK HANLEY
I-J Correspondent

LOS ANGELES—As it is in northern California, the baseball talk in the southern part of the state is the same.

"Who is going to beat the Braves?" a Los Angeles sports writer asked Bill Rigney, the same question asked by most of the 58,259 Seals Stadium customers who saw the Braves in action for the first time this season earlier in the week.

"We're even with them 3-3 in the two series we played them," answered the manager of the Giants. "But we are down here to play the Dodgers now. That's the way we are playing them this season, one game at a time."

Rigney's voice carried no sarcastic inflection in his tailend remark. He stated his point matter-of-factly, implying that the Giants' primary problem at the moment is to beat the Dodgers tonight in the first of a three-game series in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

To remain at the current 3½ game disadvantge they now are behind the league-leading Braves, the Giants may have to win all three games from the Dodgers because the Milwaukee wrecking outfit goes to work tonight on the staggering Phillies in the first of a five-game series at Philadelphia.

IT HARDLY seems likely that the Phillies, twice shutout last week by Sam Jones and Mike McCormick who had no-hitters going into the last innings, will be any match for Lew Burdette, Warren Spahn and the other Brave moundsmen. Burdette, 2-0 against them this year, is the Brave starter tonight at Connie Mack Stadium.

If by chance, Richie Ashburn and his teammates do the unexpected and tag Burdette, Spahn & Company for some runs they probably won't be enough to match those produced by the wrecking crew of Hank Aaron, Joe Adcock, Billy Bruton, Wes Covington, Del Crandall, Johnny Logan, Eddie Mathews, Mickey Vernon or rookie Joe Morgan.

ALL NINE of those belters, except one, are hitting .300 or better. The exception, Aaron, is well over .400.

Imagine the soothing effect that kind of hitting must have on Fred Haney's nerves which receive additional therapeutic treatment of the tenderest kind every time Burdette and Spahn go to work.

However, Haney doesn't sit on his buttocks as the Brave manager, content in the knowledge that his team can't be overtaken. He knows the percentages are against this, particularly after the Braves' first full 1959 swing around the National League circuit — a trip that brought them into Philadelphia with a current 7-2 road record.

And Haney is a manager who plays all the percentages as indicated by the fact he put a relief pitcher to work in the bullpen every time the Giants got a man on first base Tuesday night — even when the Braves were leading 8-1 in the eighth inning.

Therefore, it seemed a trifle incongruous with his conservative percentage-style of managing when he did not send one of his hard-hitting left-handed benchmen to bat as a pinch-hitter for Bob Buhl in the ninth inning of the third Brave-Giant game.

INSTEAD of Vernon or Morgan, who have been pinch-hitting at .360 and .357, or even Frank Torre who can belt the ball better than his current .229 would indicate, Haney sent Stan Lopata to bat for Buhl.

He stayed with Lopata, a right-handed hitter who hadn't got one hit in nine pinch-hitting roles, even after Rigney summoned right-hander Sam Jones to protect southpaw Mike McCormick's 6-3 lead that was in jeopardy due to Andy Pafko's opening single in the ninth and Logan's safe bunt.

Jones fanned Lopata and then got Vernon, who did come on as a pinch-hitter for Felix Mantilla, and Mathews on grounders.

Asked about his decision on Lopata before he left yesterday for Philadelphia with the Braves, Haney, a man who doesn't believe in taking chances, admitted "I was playing a hunch."

Troy Favored In Final PCC Track Meet

SEATTLE (AP) — Some 150 athletes of assorted sizes, shapes and abilities pour into University of Washington Stadium today for the last Pacific Coast Conference track meet.

Wayne Crow of California will open the two-day cinder circus when he steps into the shot put circle at about 3 p.m.

Preliminaries in most field events and in all track contests except the mile, two mile and relay were scheduled for today. Finals in all events will be held Saturday.

One of the last official acts of the PCC, which will die Sunday, will be to crown the team champion. The Southern California Trojans, who have won 17 of them, are heavy favorites to take this last one.

Only two of the five champions to defend their titles appeared certain to repeat. One is a double champ. He is Willie White of California, who owns the crown for the 100 and 220-yard dashes. His best time this year for the 100, however, is slower than Oregon's Roscoe Cook, who ran it in 9.5 seconds.

STATEN FAVORED

Southern Cal's Bobby Staten, clocked in 20.9 seconds, has a tenth of a second over White's best time in the 220.

Expected to retain the high jump crown without difficulty is Charlie Dumas of Southern California, who has cleared the bar at 7 feet. UCLA's George Roubanis shouldn't have any trouble keeping the pole vault title.

The 46.6-second performance in the quarter mile by Staten makes him the favorite to take the 440 title from Washington's Terry Tobacco. Tobacco's time has been bettered by several others this season.

Ernie Cunliffe of Stanford has posted the best time so far this season at 1:49.9 in the half-mile and might topple Jerry Siebert of California from that throne.

The low hurdle title is owned by Washington State's Spike Arlt, but his best 1959 time of 23.1 seconds has been matched by Steve Anderson of Oregon. Staten, White and Cebron Russ of California will challenge for the title.

SINATRA INVOLVED

Vargas Managers' Purse Withheld

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The State Athletic Commission is inestvigating singer Frank Sinatra's financial interest in heavyweight boxer Rueben Vargas.

Commissioners held up the managerial purse from Vargas' 10-round loss to Eddie Machen here Wednesday. The co-managers affected were Bert Brodose and Ralph Gambina, who represent Sinatra.

Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion and now chief inspector for the commission in Northern California, said he had been instructed to hold up $5,538.60.

Jack Urch, chief enforcement officer for the commission, said in Sacramento, "Certain promises were made by Gambina that Brodose would get $10,000 for the sale of one-half of the manager's share of Vargas' earnings. Apparently they had an agreement on this, but there is difference of opinion between them as to when this arrangement was to have started."

Urch said the commission wants to question Gambina of Los Angeles as to Henry Sanicola's interest in Vargas.

Brodose said Sanicola was Sinatra's business manager and Gambina represents them as the co-manager.

"I never even met Sinatra," said Brodose, who lives in San Francisco.

Brodose said he made an agreement with Sanicola and Gambina about eight months ago to sell them 50 per cent of the contract for $10,000 but has not been paid.

"However," he added, "I did not ask for the commission investigation. They haven't come up with the money and I've been shelling out. I have been paying the one-half share since the agreement."

Brodose said he sold the interest because he was promised that better matches could be made. Since then Vargas has twice fought before national television—on Jan. 30 when he beat Tony Anthony in New York and against Machen.

Record 278 Game, 711 Series Set At New Greenbrae Lanes

A 170-average bowler from San Anselmo yesterday afternoon scored the highest single game and three-game series on record at the new Greenbrae Lanes which opened in March.

He is Ted Wolcott, a salesman for the Pyramid Plywood Co. in San Rafael, whose 278 game and 711 series were recorded in open play.

The high game masterpiece saw Wolcott lead off with four straight strikes, but then hit a 3-10 split. After picking that up, he struck out.

49er Ticket Sale Hits 34,000 Mark

San Francisco 49er season ticket sale has reached the 34,000 mark, Ticket Director Peter Giannini reported today.

The sale is more than 7,000 above the same date last year.

Giannini said that new orders are now being accepted, but seat locations cannot be assigned until June 16. The ticket staff, until that time, will be processing renewals.

In 1958, the 49ers were second only to Detroit in the National Football League with a sale of 38,500. The Lions' total was more than 42,000.

"If our August and September sales are anything like 1958, we would go over 40,000 this year," Giannini declared.

Season tickets include the six league games, starting Sept. 27 with the Philadelphia Eagles, and are priced at $27 each.

WEEKEND REGATTA

New Courses For Corinthian Race

By ALFRED MATSON

The Race Committee of the Corinthian Yacht Club has laid out a couple of new and interesting courses for the big boats of Cruising Club "A" and "B" divisions in the Sunday races of their Annual Regatta this weekend.

Interesting, primarily, because of their length—30 miles for "A" and 25 miles for "B" division, giving the ocean racing contingents opportunities to reveal their true potentials.

Actually, the program offers two days, Saturday and Sunday, of racing for the devotees of sail. However, due to the adoption of restrictive one race participation by several of the classes, the schedule for tomorrow is somewhat modified.

Unfotunately for the spectator and shutterbug the courses are largely off shore and cannot be viewed too well from any particular vantage point. To elaborate, the starts and finishes are off Knox Buoy, situated on the westerly side of Angel Island and, other than a spinnaker run from Crissy Field Buoy, along the Presidio and Marina shore, the action will be rather remote.

The only possible exceptions are the contenders in the "A" division. The final mark of their course is a buoy off the Richmond shore and, perforce, that last long mile will entail a thrash to windward up Raccoon Straits and Paradise Drive should provide a splendid view of the final stages of the race. The time of their passage along the Marin shore line is, however, in the laps of the Gods. If strong winds prevail, the leaders could be on stage by the middle of the afternoon, but if the breezes prove lethargic, the crews might well miss their suppers, and "Maverick," too.

Participation for the Corinthian Regatta bodes well to be comparable to the record-breaking turnout of last week's Hearst All-Clubs hassle. The reasons are two-fold: first, the racing season has just gotten underway and the competitive urge to go forth into battle is at a high pitch; secondly, the event is sanctioned by the Yacht Racing Union and, therefore, each participant is accorded points in direct ratio to their finishing position in respective class or division, albeit, the winner is awarded an extra quarter point.

In a 10-boat field, for instance, the winner would receive 10¼ points; one point for entering and finishing the race, nine points for each of the vanquished and the ¼ point for the victory. The second boat would be credited with nine points and so down the line. The points are cumulative and at season's end the one who has amassed the greatest number is proclaimed the Season's Champion and takes home a lion's share of the hardware. A high honor and, in the main, the yachtsmen will strive to the bitter end for that niche.

Commodore Ronnie Buist of Corinthian Y.C. has issued a hearty welcome to all visiting firemen. Berths or moorings for all boats will be available, dinner and dancing Saturday evening and breakfast will be served Sunday morning. And all most reasonably priced, too.

PONY LEAGUE DIAMOND TO BE DEDICATED

Mill Valley Pony League's 1959 schedule will open tomorrow with the usual opening day fanfare, featuring the dedication of a new field, it was announced by President Jim Long.

Several civic and school officials will be on hand at noon at Edna Maguire School for the dedication of the new diamond, Long said.

The day's baseball activities will begin at 10 a.m. when the Mill Valley Red Sox take on the Kentfield Pony Leaguers. Following dedication ceremonies the Mill Valley Colts will play Tiburon at 1 p.m. and the Mill Valley Cardinals will meet the Mill Valley Orioles at 3 p.m.

A concession stand supervised by Mrs. Tony Almada will be open all day starting at 10 a.m.

Archie 'Used To' Respect Robinson

SAN DIEGO (UPI) — Light heavyweight champ Archie Moore says he used to have "respect for Sugar Ray Robinson," and he lays emphasis on the "used to."

"Robinson is always fishing for an edge—he doesnt know how to be fair," the ageless boxer said yesterday when told Robinson said:

"I'll never fight Archie Moore in Kansas City or any place. I wouldn't fight him for anything—not even for 2 million dollars—not after the run-around he gave me."

The "run-around" referred to a proposed bout last winter in which Robinson claimed both he and Moore would have been guaranteed half a million dollars if Moore had signed up.

Said Moore disgustedly: "I have no plans to fight Robinson and I dont care if I ever fight him."

NEWS VIEWS

By LEON C. SMITH

We've been hearing a lot about using various kinds of monkeys to test some of our space rockets . . . and the first visitor to the moon may be a refugee from an organ grinder. We also hear of an ex-Yale professor who is experimenting with three young apes. He is trying to teach them to talk, and he's as confident as a lifeguard in a bath tub. Maybe this is a good idea . . . but I don't know. If the apes learn to talk, perhaps other animals will, too . . . and what'll happen to humans? We don't want the family dog correcting our grammar when we tell him to "Lay down!", and we'd hate to have the family cat asking for a little catsup on its liver. If the apes talk we may even have some big baboons running for office some day. Do you have to do it, Professor?

When a San Francisco fellow was kissing his girl goodnight his car rolled downhill and crashed into a parked car. Apparently something wrong with the clutch. You're sure to be right when you select a used car from our large stock of late model trade-ins. Our mechanics carefully and thoroughly check each car and put it in top condition before it is put on our used car lot. This is why each car carries a gurantee you can depend on. # Drake Picnic To Honor Sports Teams

An old-fashioned family picnic—with no dishes to wash—was announced today for Drake High School spring sports fans and participants Thursday, May 28.

Victor Sagues of San Anselmo, Drake Benchwarmer president for baseball, swimming, track, tennis and golf, said the event would begin with a softball game between fathers and sons and exhibition track events at 5:30 p.m.

A swimming and diving show is set for 6 p.m., followed by picnic supper at 6:45 and the presentation of awards in all five sports in the gym at 7:45.

"This is an an affair for the family," said Saugues. "Team members will be admitted free, adults at 75 cents each and small children (grammar school age and under) for 25 cents.

"For that amount we will furnish a main course, salad, dessert and drink—plus an opportunity to see our teams rewarded for their accomplishments."

Nearly 150 boys are included in the five sports, including freshman, junior varsity and varsity teams.

This year's recipients of five "most valuable player" and team captain trophies will be named, as will the best sportsman on each team and the best scholar on all except freshman teams.

Softball Players Sought By Dugout

Dugout Dandies of the forthcoming San Rafael Softball League need some players to fill out their roster, it was announced today. Anyone interested in playing in the San Rafael men's league should contact the Dugout, B street.

Bill Approved To Ban Bias In Housing

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill banning discrimination because of race, religion or ancestry in sale or rental of any "publicly assisted" housing was approved unanimously by the Senate Judiciary Committee last night.

The Assembly-approved measure now goes to the Senate floor.

"Publicly assisted" housing would include FHA tract homes, multiple family dwellings built or maintained with government loans, and any houses directly aided by public funds or tax exemptions.

Houses assisted by the $1,000 property tax exemption for veterans would be exempted if that were the only public assistance.

The bill would not apply to individual houses purchased under government-insured loans.

It carries no criminal penalties, but provides for civil damages of at least $500.

Representatives of the California Savings and Loan League, California Real Estate Assn. and the Home Builders Assn. all testified against the bill.

McCarthy Kills Own Billboard Measure

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The bill to regulate billboards along the state's scenic highways was killed yesterday in a fiery blast against lobbyists who ruined the measure.

Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) asked that his own bill be stricken from the file because "lobbyists, especially Foster and Kleiser (outdoor advertising firm), exert too much pressure."

He said they had caused the bill to be amended so heavily that it was ruined.

But McCarthy warned he would not give up the fight. He said he would sponsor an initiative to put a billboard proposition on the 1960 election ballot, "and, believe me, the proposal I will give them will be harsher than this bill ever would have been on the billboard industry."

Sen. Fred S. Farr (D-Carmel) joined with McCarthy in the attack on the billboard industry.

McCarthy said "every session this type of legislation is introduced with an aim to protect our scenic highways, but each session our efforts are in vain.

"Lobbyists, especially Foster and Kleiser, exert too much pressure.

"All we did in this legislation was to finally give local governments the authority to name scenic highways. We exempted many features of industry.

"But the other day, this bill was amended by Sen. (John J.) Hollister (D-Goleta), who I know was sincere. This (amended bill) would grant compensation to billboard firms and land owners" for billboards lost, McCarthy said.

"There is no procedure for paying these land owners, so it would go to the courts," he said.

"Because of the action of outdoor advertising people who would not recognize the wishes of the honest citizen to maintain scenic routes, I am going to ask the people to put this on the ballot."

New Vote Slated On Bill To Keep Informers Secret

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Senate will reconsider allowing police to keep the names of informers secret in narcotics cases.

The upper house yesterday narrowly defeated a bill by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky (R-Watsonville) which would have permitted police to withhold the names of confidential narcotics informers.

Grunsky had a 19-17 majority vote but was two short of the 21 needed for passage. The Senate agreed to let Grunsky bring the measure to another vote.

Several opponents said someone could plant drugs on an innocent man and call police anonymously. Innocent persons have been found guilty in such cases, said Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego).

Grunsky said he would try to amend the bill to protect people from possible frameups. He said police do not attempt to prosecute on uncorroborated evidence.

"Over 90 per cent of convictions in narcotics cases are due to tips from confidential informers," Grunsky said, "If we must continue to reveal informers' identities, law enforcement will suffer a crippling blow."

Senate Votes To Override Brown Veto

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A 33-0 Senate vote to override a bill veto by Gov. Edmund G. Brown put the Assembly's Democratic majority on the spot today.

The Senate, 27-13 Democratic, handed the Democratic governor a sharp rebuff yesterday by its one-sided support of the bill by a Republican senator, John A. Murdy Jr. of Santa Ana.

The disputed measure would have allowed county supervisors to fire their county counsel. The counsel now have four-year terms.

It will require at least 54 of the 80 Assembly votes to enact the bill into law over the veto. The house, 47-33 Demomratic, originally passed it 62-6.

Senate Majority Leader Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno) said he saw no political significance in the Senate uprising.

"It was simply a disagreement with the governor on the question of whether county supervisors can hire or fire whom they please," he told a reporter.

It was the first of 15 vetoes thus far this session to kick back on Brown. The Senate voted in 1957 to override a veto by the then Republican governor, Goodwin J. Knight, but his action was upheld by the Assembly by the narrowest of margins.

VACATIONS, PARTIES

Catholic High Fiesta Workers, Students Have Exciting Plans

By Genevieve Fitzharris

Keyed to the festive mood of the Marin Fiesta at Marin Catholic High School this weekend, committee members and students are deep in other interesting plans too.

Lillian Flynn, for instance, who with her two Pats, her husband and son, (Patrick, senior, is helping with plants, shrines and birds at the Fiesta), leaves June 9 on the President Cleveland. The Flynns' first trip to the Orient, their six weeks itinerary will include visits in Hawaii, Yokohama, Manila, Hong Kong and back to Kobe, Japan, before sailing home.

Somewhat on the surprise side was the Deer Park Villa dinner party honoring Florence Fraize (Mrs. Ted) Wednesday evening before her last meeting as president of the Marin Catholic Women's Club. Her officers and board gave her a zippered prayerbook as a memoir of her term. Florence is heading the information booth for the Fiesta, while Ted has the awesome task of warehousing thousands of articles for the 30 booths.

The Jack Enos family (Kay is in charge of "Candyland") is trying hard to find time for the christening of their new yellow and cream boat.

Though busy supervising painting operations at the Fiesta, Al Quilici find time with Clista and Ron, to keep a weather eye on progress of lovely new home in Harbor Estates.

Recently returned from Disneyland is Mrs. Gerald Misner who is suspected of gathering extra inspiration to fit into her chairmanship of the Land of Oz this weekend. Newest note on that is the selection of Diane Gooch of Mill Valley as the Princess Ozma.

Entertainment chairman, Derna Bovee, with Alex and son, Alan, are busy with plans for the dinner party at the Alta Mira, June 6, honoring her mother, Mrs. Florence Cetrino of Corte Madera on her 76th birthday. Derna is one of 8 living children (there were 13) of Mrs. Cetrino. Others planning to attend the party will be the Harold Stahls of Corte Madera and, (all from San Francisco) the Henry Jamisons and daughter Denise; the Edward Cetrinos and daughter Joan (also an honoree, leaving the following week for a summer visit to the Islands); the Amadeo (Al) Cetrinos and daughters Derna and Kim; the Guido Cetrinos and daughter Carole; the Dell Cetrinos and son Anthony, and Misses Edna and Carole Cetrino.

Among Marin Catholic students and their parents already busy with vacation plans are: Carol Giacomini and family (the Toby Giacominis) who are going to Chicago; Marlene Todt and brother, Richard, who with their parents, the Thomas Deffebachs, are going to Alaska this summer; Betty Beutler and Carol McQueeney who plan to visit Mexico; Mike Riordan and parents, the Emmett Riordans, to go on trip through the Mid-West; and June Graves, daughter of Mrs. Johanna Savacool, who is going with a group to New York.

Flat-Chested Teen-Age Girl In Serious Mental Depression

Mrs. M. S. "I'm afraid our girl will lose her mind. She is 17, and attractive in most ways. Her only flaw is that she is flat-chested. Her sisters have good figures. They used to tease her about it, but they don't any more. She is depressed. She can't eat. She is afraid to speak to a boy, because of her figure. How can we help her?"

Reply. See your family doctor. Have him refer her to a doctor who specializes in endocrinology. Have the specialist examine her and do all he can to help her. Ask a woman physical education teacher to give her some exercises designed to improve her figure. If her depression continues ask your family doctor to refer her to a psychiatrist. Many teen-age girls worry too much about their figures. Sometimes the worry is a symptom of other more serious emotional problems. A psychiatrist would help your girl to feel better. I'm glad her sisters have stopped the teasing.

Mr. G. W. "Our son is 6. He has had epilepsy for over a year. We can reduce the number of attacks with medicine. But he still has attacks frequently. Is there a boarding school where he might be accepted? We would spend any amount of money to help him."

Reply. The Federal Association for Epilepsy has a national center for children at Leesburg, Va. Enrollment is limited, but some epileptic children between the ages of five and 18 can be enrolled. Write to the Federal Association for Epilepsy, 1729 F street, N.W., Washington 6, D.C.

Mr. D. F. "Our school board wanted to have the schools operate the year around. But many parents objected, so the idea was dropped. Are other schools doing it?"

Reply. Very few public schools operate on a 12-month basis. Parents object everywhere. Many communities are developing an 11-month school program instead. They do it by expanding their summer schools. Attendance is voluntary, but in some places a majority of the pupils enroll. The goals of the 12-month school year are being reached this way.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, May 22, the 142nd day of the year, with 223 more days in 1959.

The moon is in its full phase.

The morning stars are Mercury and Saturn.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Venus and Mars.

On this date in history::

In 1813, Richard Wagner, the German composer, was born in Liepzig, Germany.

In 1819, for the first time in history, an American-made steamship, the Savannah, set out for a trans-Atlantic voyage. The trip to Liverpool took about one month.

In 1859, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, English writer and creator of "Sherlock Holmes," was born.

In 1924, Chicago police arrested Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb for the kidnaping and murder of 13-year-old Bobby Franks. They were sentenced to 99 years after being saved from the gallows by defense lawyer Clarence Darrow. Loeb was killed in prison in 1936. Leopold won parole last year.

In 1943, Soviet Russia announced the dissolution of the Communist International, the Comintern, founded in 1919 to promote world revolution.

A thought for today: Sir Arthur Conan Doyle said: "It is a great thing to start life with a small number of really good books which are your very own."

Model Home To Be Open In Greenbrae

The newest in a long series of model homes in Greenbrae will be opened to the public tomorrow at 121 Via Ramon, Alvin K. Schultz, head of the development firm, announced today.

Located on the level top of a knoll high above the bustle of traffic, the new home rests on a wide, fenced lot 210 feet deep, facing a dense grove of oaks at the lower end.

The exterior is done in a combination of stucco and vertical broad boards and batten. The outer porch or entry has a partially open roof permitting entrance of maximum afternoon sunshine, and has a flower planter.

SHOJI SCREEN

The entry hall presents a Shoji screen extending to the beam ceiling, separating the entry from the 32-foot long combination living and dining room. The room has a raised hearth its full width at one end, with fireplace of brick. The opposite end features a new type wall paper of gold with a faint Oriental mural design. Outside is a large view deck reached through sliding glass doors.

The new home also offers an approach to the family area which is different, according to Greenbrae sales manager George P. Bogel. "This is a very long room with the latest of kitchen facilities at one end and a generous sized family space at the opposite end, large enough for modern leisure living," he said. It would lend itself to TV viewing as well, he added.

KITCHEN APPLIANCES

Kitchen appliances include a built-in electric range with high oven, dishwasher and garbage disposal.

The home is split-level type with four steps leading to upper living quarters consisting of three bedrooms and two baths.

The master bedroom is done in blue and has three commodious closets. The other bedrooms are in generous proportions as are the two baths. One bedroom is done in soft beige and the third is in ivory with a unique tule cloth wall covering.

Wall-to-wall carpeting is featured throughout the house. Furnishing and decorating has been executed by Casa Marin of San Rafael.

A few steps down and the owner will find himself in an enormous garage including a hobby shop area with a nearby cemented space suitable for storage.

All of said work is to be done at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes and dimensions and of the materials, and to the lines and grades and at the elevations as shown and delineated upon the plans, profiles and specifications made therefor and preliminarily approved by said Council on May 18th, 1959.

However, notice is given that a period of 30 days is given to the property owners in which to pay their assessments, and if cash collections are insufficient to meet such monthly estimates, there will be a delay in making such payments until money is received from the sale of the bonds issued upon the unpaid assessments. All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a cashier's or certified check payable to the order of the City, amounting to ten per cent (10%) of the bid, or by a bond in said amount and payable to said City signed by the bidder and a corporate surety, or by the bidder and two sureties who shall justify before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double said amount and over and above all statutory exemptions. Said check shall be forfeited or said bond shall become payable to said City in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within 15 days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the city.

Contractor shall furnish to City a faithful performance bond and labor and material bond as required in said specifications.

Said sealed proposals shall be delivered to the City Clerk of said City on or before 8:00 o'clock P.M. of the 6th day of July, 1959, Council Chambers, City Hall, San Rafael, California, said time being at least fourteen days from the time of publication of this notice. Bids will be publicly opened, examined and declared on said day and hour.

Marin Singers To Accompany With Soloist

The seventh and eighth grade chorus of Isabel Cook School will share the stage with June Wilkins, San Francisco contralto, in a concert at the school auditorium June 5 at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Wilkins has been a soloist with the San Francisco and Spokane Symphonies, at the Carmel Bach Festival, in Bay Area light opera productions and in local churches.

She will sing an aria from "Samson and Dalila" by Saint-Saens, two American folk songs and a group of Chinese nursery rhymes. The chorus will accompany her in two numbers: Frank's "Panis Angelicus" and a well known spiritual.

The 65-voice chorus will perform works by Cruger and Bach under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Nuebauer with Richard Judd at the piano. An eighth grade sextet will sing a number of a lighter nature.

ACTOR MENJOU ANGERED BY TV STUPIDITY

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Actor Adolph Menjou fumed at "the complete stupidity of some things in television" in a letter to the Los Angeles Examiner.

Menjou said that when he appeared on the George Gobel show he was forced to remove the carnation from his buttonhole, because the program is sponsored by Pet Milk.

Seminary Names New Instructor

Rev. Victor John Bachman, pastor of Olivet Church in San Francisco, has been appointed assistant professor of practical theology at San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Bachman is a graduate of the seminary and has been serving as part-time instructor for three years.

Ex-Marinite Gets Air Force Citation

Lt. Col. John W. Collins, formerly of San Rafael and now stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, received a citation for his work in military air transport service at the time of his recent promotion to lieutenant colonel.

Collins, son of Mrs. Veronica Collins of San Rafael, was advertising manager for the Marin Journal in San Rafael from 1946 to 1950, before being recalled to military service during the Korean War.

Reservoirs Open For Recreation

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed into law a bill opening to recreation public reservoirs used for drinking water.

The measure by Assemblyman S. C. Masterson (D-Richmond) passed the Senate 32-5 and the Assembly 70-4.

A representative of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California appeared before Brown yesterday to ask assurance that the measure would affect only reservoirs where the water is purified chemically before it is used for human consumption.

A similar bill by Masterson had twice been vetoed after approval during previous sessions of the Legislature.

Redwood High Slates First Commencement

Members of Redwood High School's first graduating class will receive diplomas at an all-student commencement program June 18 at 8 p.m. in the boy's gymnasium.

There are 138 candidates for graduation from the new school, which opened last September at the Larkspur-Corte Madera boundary near Highway 101.

The senior class will march to the stage to the accompaniment of "Pomp and Circumstance," played by the school orchestra.

Hugh (Terry) Rielly III, second semester student body president, will lead the pledge to the flag. Jeffrey N. Daly, first semester president, will deliver the invocation.

The welcoming address will be given by Matthew B. Hallinan, second semester senior class president, and the valedictory address by Stefanie Mae Rodrigo.

A class gift to the school will be presented by Roger L. Cumming, first semester class president. It will be accepted in behalf of the school by Robert Kuehnl, co-adviser to the seniors.

Principal Donald Kreps then will present the graduating class to the five trustees of Tamalpais Union High School District and declare the seniors eligible for diplomas. The declaration will be acknowledged by Supt. Chester G. Carlisle.

Diplomas wil be presented by Howard I. McGill, president of the board of trustees.

The "Coronation March" will be played by the orchestra as the new graduates file from the stage.
